(2) The Governor General in Council may by like notification declare² that this Act applies in respect of any British protectorate or in respect of any State in India and where such a declaration has been made, this Act shall apply as if such protectorate or State were a reciprocating territory.

4. (1) Where a maintenance order has whether before or after the passing of this Act been made against any person by any Court in any reciprocating territory, and a certified copy of the order has been transmitted by the proper authority of that territory to the Governor General, the Governor General in Council shall send a copy of the order to the prescribed officer of a Court in British India for registration and on receipt thereof the order shall be registered in the prescribed manner.

Registration in British India of maintenance orders made in other parts of His Majesty's Dominions

² For Notifications making such declarations in respect of certain protectorates see Gen. R. & O., Vol. V, p. 4.

(2) The Court in which an order is to be so registered as aforesaid shall, if the Court by which the order was made was, in the opinion of the Governor General in Council, a Court of superior jurisdiction, be a High Court, and, if the Court was not, in his opinion, a Court of superior jurisdiction, be a Court of summary jurisdiction

Transmission of maintenance orders made in British India

5. Where a Court in British India has, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, made a maintenance order against any person, and it is proved to that Court that the person against whom the order was made is resident in a reciprocating territory, the Court shall send to the Governor General in Council, for transmission to the proper authority of that territory, a certified copy of the order

Power of Summary Courts to make provisional maintenance orders against persons resident in His Majesty's Dominions outside British India

6. (1) Where application is made to a Court of summary jurisdiction in British India for a maintenance order against any person, and it is proved that that person is resident in a reciprocating territory, the Court may, in the absence of that person, if after hearing the evidence it is satisfied of the justice of the application, make any such order as it might have made if that person had wilfully neglected to attend the Court, but in such case the order shall be provisional only and shall have no effect unless and until confirmed by a competent Court in such territory.

(2) The evidence of every witness who is examined on any such application shall be reduced to writing and such deposition shall be read over to, and signed by, him

(3) Where such an order is made, the Court shall send to the Governor General in Council, for transmission to the proper authority of the reciprocating territory in which the person against whom the order is made is alleged to reside, the depositions so taken and a certified copy of the order together with a statement of the grounds on which the making of the order might have been opposed if the person against whom the order is made had been duly served with a summons and had appeared at the hearing and such information as the Court possesses for facilitating the identification of that person and ascertaining his whereabouts

(4) Where any such provisional order has come before a Court in a reciprocating territory for confirmation, and the order has by that Court been remitted to the Court of summary jurisdiction which made the order for the purpose of taking further evidence, that Court shall, after giving the prescribed notice, proceed to take the evidence in like manner and subject to the like conditions as the evidence in support of the original application

(5) If it appears to the Court hearing such evidence that the order ought not to have been made, the Court may rescind the order, but in any other case the depositions shall be sent to the Governor General in Council and dealt with in like manner as the original depositions.

(6) The confirmation of an order made under this section shall not affect any power of a Court of summary jurisdiction to vary or rescind that order.

Provided that, on the making of a varying or rescinding order, the Court shall send a certified copy thereof to the Governor General in Council for transmission to the proper authority of the reciprocating territory in which the original order was confirmed, or to which it was sent for confirmation and that, in the case of an order varying the original order, the order shall not have any effect unless and until confirmed in like manner as the original order.

7 (1) Where a maintenance order has been made by a Court in a reciprocating territory and the order is provisional only, and has no effect unless and until confirmed by a Court of summary jurisdiction in British India and a certified copy of the order together with the depositions of the witnesses and a statement of the grounds on which the order might have been opposed has been transmitted to the Governor General, and it appears to the Governor General in Council that the person against whom the order has been made is resident in British India the Governor General in Council may send the said documents to the presiding officer of a Court of summary jurisdiction, with a requisition that a summons be issued calling upon the person to show cause why that order should not be confirmed and upon receipt of such documents and requisition the Court shall issue such a summons and cause it to be served upon such person.

Power of Court of summary jurisdiction to confirm maintenance order made out of British India

(2) A summons issued under sub section (1) shall for all purposes be deemed to be a summons issued by the Court in the exercise of its original criminal jurisdiction.

(3) At the hearing it shall be open to the person to whom the summons was issued to raise any defence which he might have raised in the original proceedings had he been a party thereto but no other defence, and the certificate from the Court which made the provisional order stating the grounds on which the making of the order might have been opposed if the person against whom the order was made had been a party to the proceedings shall be conclusive evidence that those grounds are grounds on which objection may be taken.

(4) If at the hearing the person served with the summons does not appear or on appearing, fails to satisfy the Court that the order ought not to be confirmed, the Court may, notwithstanding any pecuniary limit imposed on its power by any law for the time being in force in British India, confirm the order either without modification or with such modifications as to the Court after hearing the evidence may seem just

Provided that no sum shall be awarded as maintenance under this section, or shall be recoverable as such, at a rate exceeding that proposed in the provisional order

(5) If the person to whom the summons was issued appears at the hearing and satisfies the Court that for the purpose of any defence it is necessary to remit the case to the Court which made the provisional order for the taking of any further evidence, the Court may for that purpose send a certified copy of the record to the Governor General in Council for transmission to that Court through the proper authority of the reciprocating territory, and may adjourn the proceedings

(6) Where a provisional order has been confirmed under this section, it may be varied or rescinded in like manner as if it had originally been made by the confirming Court, and where on an application for rescission or variation the Court is satisfied that it is necessary to remit the case to the Court which made the provisional order for the purpose of taking any further evidence, the Court may for that purpose send a certified copy of the record to the Governor General in Council for transmission to that Court through the proper authority of the reciprocating territory, and may adjourn the proceedings

8. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, where an order has been registered under this Act in a High Court, the order shall, from the date of such registration be of the same force and effect, and all proceedings may be taken thereon as if it had been an order originally obtained in the High Court in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction, or in such Civil Court subordinate to that High Court as may be named by the High Court in this behalf and that Court shall have power to enforce the order accordingly

(2) A Court of summary jurisdiction in which an order has been registered under this Act or by which an order has been confirmed under this Act, and the officers of such Court, shall have such powers and perform such duties, for the purpose of enforcing the order, as may be prescribed

9. A Court in registering or confirming an order for maintenance in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall direct that the charges for the transmission to the Court, from which the order has been received or in which the provisional order has been made, as the case may be, of the sum awarded as maintenance shall be borne by the person against whom the order has been made or confirmed, and shall be recovered from him in addition to the sum awarded as maintenance and in addition to and in the same manner as such other costs and charges as may be awarded or levied by the Court

Payment of charges for transmission of sums awarded as maintenance and other costs and charges

10. For the purposes of this Act, any document purporting to be signed by a judge or officer of a Court outside British India shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been so signed without proof of the signature of judicial or official character of the person appearing to have signed it and the officer of a Court by whom a document is signed shall until the contrary is proved be deemed to have been the proper officer of the Court to sign the document

Proof of documents signed by officers of Court

11. Depositions taken in a Court in any reciprocating territory may, for the purposes of this Act, be received in evidence in proceedings before Courts of summary jurisdiction under this Act

Depositions to be evidence

12. The Governor General in Council may make rules¹ for the purpose of carrying into effect the purposes of this Act and in particular may make rules for the levy of the costs or charges for anything done under this Act and for all matter which are directed or permitted to be prescribed

ACT No XI OF 1922¹

[5th March, 1922]

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to Income-tax and Super-tax.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to Income tax and Super-tax, It is hereby enacted as follows —

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Income tax Act, 1922

Short title, extent and

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan and the Sonthal Parganas, and applies also, within the ~~dominions~~ ^{of the said States} of Princes and Chiefs in alliance with His Majesty, to British subjects in those dominions who are in the service of the Government of India or of a local authority established in the exercise of the powers of the ~~Government General in Council~~ ^{Government of India or of a local authority established in the exercise of the powers of the Government General in Council} in that behalf, and to all other servants of ~~His Majesty in those dominions~~ ^{the Crown}, ~~the said States & areas~~

(3) It shall come into force on the first day of April, 1922

Definitions

2 In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(1) " agricultural income " means—

(a) any rent or revenue derived from land which is used for agricultural purposes, and is either assessed to land revenue in British India or subject to a local rate assessed and collected by officers of ~~Government~~ ^{the Crown} as such,

(b) any income derived from such land by—

(i) agriculture, or

(ii) the performance by a cultivator or receiver of rent in kind of any process ordinarily employed by a cultivator or receiver of rent in kind to render the produce raised or received by him fit to be taken to market, or

(iii) the sale by a cultivator or receiver of rent in kind of the produce raised or received by him, in respect of which no process has been performed other than a process of the nature described in sub clause (ii),

Assessment after partition of a Hindu undivided family

4 After section 25 of the said Act the following section shall be inserted, namely —

“ 25A (1) Where, at the time of making an assessment under section 23, it is claimed by or on behalf of any member of a Hindu family hitherto undivided that a partition has taken place among the members of such family, the Income-tax Officer shall make such inquiry thereinto as he may think fit, and, if he is satisfied that a separation of the members of the family has taken place and that the joint family property has been partitioned among the various members or groups of members in definite portions before the end of the previous year, he shall record an order to that effect

Provided that no such order shall be recorded until notices of the inquiry have been served on all the members of the family

(2) Where such an order has been passed, the Income-tax Officer shall make an assessment of the total income received by or on behalf of the joint family or such, as if no separation or partition had taken place, and each member or group of members shall, in addition to any income-tax for which he is separately liable and notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), be liable for a share of the tax on the income so assessed according to the portion of the joint family property allotted to him or it, and the Income-tax Officer shall make assessments accordingly on the various members and groups of members in accordance with the provisions of section 23

Provided that all the separated members and groups of members shall be liable jointly and severally for the tax assessed on the total income received by or on behalf of the joint family, as such.”

Amendment of section 26, Act
XI of 1922

5 For section 26 of the said Act the following section shall be substituted, namely —

Change in
of a firm.

“ 26 (1) Where, at the time of making an assessment under section 23, it is found that a change has occurred in the constitution of a firm or that a firm has been newly constituted, the assessments on the firm and on the members thereof shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be made as if the firm had been constituted throughout the previous year as it is constituted at the time of making the assessment, and as if each member had received a share of the profits of that year proportionate to his interest in the firm at the time of making the assessment

- (2) Where, at the time of making an assessment under section 23, it is found that the person carrying on any business, profession or vocation has been succeeded in such capacity by another person, the assessment shall be made on such person succeeding, as if he had been carrying on the business, profession or vocation throughout the previous year, and as if he had received the whole of the profits for that year."

ACT No III OF 1923 ¹

[23rd February, 1923]

An Act to provide for the restriction and control of the transport of cotton in certain circumstances.

WHEREAS it is expedient for the purpose of maintaining the quality and reputation of the cotton grown in certain areas in British India to enable the restriction and control of the transport by rail and the import of cotton into those areas, It is hereby enacted as follows —

1. (1) This Act may be called the Cotton Transport Act, 1923.

Short title
and extent.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "certified copy", in relation to a licence, means a copy of the licence certified in the manner described in section 76 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, by the authority by which the licence was granted,

(b) "cotton" means every kind of unmanufactured cotton, that is to say, ginned and unginned cotton, cotton waste and cotton seed,

(c) "cotton waste" means droppings, strippings, fly and other waste products of a cotton mill other than yarn waste,

(d) "licence" means a licence granted under this Act,

(e) "notified station" means a railway station specified in a notification under section 3,

(f) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act; and

(g) "protected area" means an area into which the import of cotton or of any kind of cotton has been prohibited ²[wholly or partly] by a notification under section 3

3. (1) The Local Government may, for the purpose of maintaining the quality or reputation of the cotton grown in any area in the Province, by notification in the local official Gazette, prohibit the import of cotton or of any specified kind of cotton into that area ³[by rail, road, river and sea, or by any one or more of such routes] save under, and in accordance with the conditions of, a licence

issue notification prohibiting import of cotton into protected area.

² These words were inserted by a 2 of the Cotton Transport (Amendment) Act, 1925 (34 of 1925)

³ These words were inserted by s. 3, ibid

Provided that no such notification shall be deemed to prohibit the import into any protected area of packages containing any kind of cotton and not exceeding ten pounds avoirdupois weight

(2) Any such notification may prohibit the delivery to, and the taking of delivery by, any person, at any specified railway station situated in the protected area, of any cotton, the import of which ¹[by rail] into that area is prohibited when such cotton has been consigned from a railway station not situated in that area, unless such person holds a licence for the import ¹[by rail] of the cotton into that area

to carry

4 (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Railways Act, 1890, or any other law for the time being in force, the station master of any railway station or any other railway servant responsible for the booking of goods or parcels at that station may refuse to receive for carriage it, or to forward or allow to be carried on the railway from, that station any cotton consigned to a notified station, being cotton of a kind of which the delivery at such notified station has been prohibited unless both stations are in the same protected area, or unless the consignor produces a certified copy of a licence for the import of the cotton ²[by rail] into the protected area in which such notified station is situated IX of 18

(2) Every certified copy of a licence when so produced shall be attached to the invoice or way bill, as the case may be and shall accompany the consignment to its destination, and shall there be dealt with in the prescribed manner

(3) Where by or under any law in force in the territories of any State in India the import ²[by rail] into any area, or the delivery at any railway station, of cotton or of any kind of cotton has been prohibited ¹, the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare that the provisions of subsection (1) shall apply in respect of cotton consigned to any such station as if such area and such station were respectively a protected area and a notified station, and as if any licence granted under such law were a licence granted under this Act

² These words were inserted by s. 4 of id.

5. (1) Where any cotton, the import of which ¹[by rail] into any protected area has been prohibited, has been consigned to and arrives ^{Procedure where cotton arrives at notified station} at a notified station in any such protected area, the station master or other railway servant responsible for the receipt and delivery to the consignee of goods or parcels, as the case may be, at that station shall, unless both the notified station and the railway station from which the cotton has been consigned are situated in the same protected area, refuse to deliver the cotton until he is satisfied that the consignee holds a licence for the import of the cotton ¹[by rail] into the protected area in which such notified station is situated, and, if he is not so satisfied, or if within fourteen days the consignee or some person acting on his behalf does not appear in order to take delivery, shall return the cotton to the railway station from which it was consigned, together with an intimation that delivery of the cotton has been refused or has not been taken, as the case may be

(2) Any station master or other railway servant receiving any cotton returned under sub section (1), or returned with a like intimation from a railway station specified in a notification under sub section (3) of section 4, shall cause to be served on the consignor in any manner authorised by section 141 of the Indian Railway Act, 1890, a notice stating that the cotton has been so returned and requiring the consignor to pay any rate, terminal or other charges due in respect of the carriage of the cotton to and from the railway station to which it was consigned, and such charges shall be deemed to be due from the consignor for all the purposes of section 50 of that Act

6 Any person who, in contravention of the provisions of this Act ^{Penalties} or of any ²notification or rule made hereunder, knowingly takes delivery of any cotton from a notified station or imports, or attempts to import, any cotton into a protected area, and any station master or other railway servant who, in contravention of the provisions of sub section (1) of section 5, without reasonable excuse, the burden of proving which shall be upon him delivers any cotton to a consignee or other person, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees, and upon any subsequent conviction to imprisonment which may extend to three months, or to fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, or to both

make rules

7. (1) The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, make rules to provide for any of the following matters, namely —

- (a) the prevention of the import into a protected area by road, river or sea, save under and in accordance with the conditions of a licence, of cotton the import of which into that area has been prohibited ¹[wholly or partly] by a notification under section 3,
- (b) the terms and conditions to be contained in licences and the authorities by which they may be granted, and
- (c) the manner in which licences and certified copies thereof shall be dealt with on and after the delivery of the cotton to which they relate

(2) Any such rules may provide that any contravention thereof or of the conditions of any licence, not otherwise made punishable by this Act, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees

Local Legislature to issue of notifications and rules

8. No notification under section 3 or rule under section 7 shall be issued by the Local Government of any Governor's Province, unless it has been laid in draft before the Legislative Council of the Province, and has been approved by a Resolution of the Legislative Council, either with or without modification or addition, but upon such approval being given the notification or rule, as the case may be, may be issued in the form in which it has been so approved

PRELIMINARY

Short title, extent and

(1) This Act may be called the Indian Mines Act, 1923.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan and the Southal Parganas

(3) It shall come into force on the first day of July, 1924

2. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to affect the provisions of the Upper Burma Ruby Regulation, 1887.

Saving of

→ See attached Act XXI of 1931 Sec 2

(3) In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

Definitions.

(a) "agent," when used in relation to a mine, means any person appointed or acting as the representative of the owner in respect of the management of the mine or of any part thereof, and as such superior to a manager under this Act;

(b) "Chief Inspector" means the Chief Inspector of Mines appointed under this Act,

(c) "child" means a person under the age of thirteen years;

(d) a person is said to be 'employed' in a mine who works under appointment by or with the knowledge of the manager, whether for wages or not, in any mining operation, or in cleaning or oiling any part of any machinery used in or about the mine, or in any other kind of work whatsoever incidental to, or connected with, mining operations,

(e) "Inspector" means an Inspector of Mines appointed under this Act, and includes a District Magistrate when exercising any power or performing any duty of an Inspector which he is empowered by this Act to exercise or perform.

(f) "mine" means any excavation where any operation for the purpose of searching for or obtaining minerals has been or is being carried on, and includes all works, machinery, tramways and sidings, whether above or below ground, in or adjacent to or belonging to a mine

provided that it shall not include any part of such premises on which a manufacturing process is being carried on unless such process is a process for coke making or the dressing of minerals,

- (g) "owner", when used in relation to a mine, means any person who is the immediate proprietor or lessee or occupier of the mine or of any part thereof, but does not include a person who merely receives a royalty, rent or fine from the mine, or is merely the proprietor of the mine subject to any lease, grant or licence for the working thereof, or is merely the owner of the soil and not interested in the minerals of the mine, but any contractor for the working of a mine or any part thereof shall be subject to this Act in like manner as if he were an owner but not so as to exempt the owner from any liability,
- (h) 'prescribed' means prescribed by regulations, rules or bye-laws,
- (i) 'qualified medical practitioner' means any person registered under the Medical Act, 1858, or any Act amending the same ^{21 & 22 Vict.} or under any Act of any Legislature in British India providing for the maintenance of a register of medical practitioners, and includes, in any area where no such last-mentioned Act is in force, any person declared by the Local Government, by notification in the local official Gazette, to be a qualified medical practitioner for the purposes of this Act,
- (j) 'regulations', 'rules' and 'bye laws' mean respectively regulations, rules and bye laws made under this Act;
- (k) 'serious bodily injury' means any injury which involves, or in all probability will involve, the permanent loss of the use of, or permanent injury to, any limb, or the permanent loss of or injury to the sight or hearing, or the fracture of any limb or the enforced absence of the injured person from work for a period exceeding twenty days, and
- (l) "week" means the period between midnight on Saturday night and midnight on the succeeding Saturday night

Provided that nothing in this sub section shall be deemed to empower a District Magistrate to exercise any of the powers conferred by section 19 or section 32

(4) The Chief Inspector and every Inspector shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code

5. (1) The Chief Inspector may by order in writing, prohibit or restrict the exercise by any Inspector named or any class of Inspectors specified, in the order of any power conferred on Inspectors by this Act, and shall, subject as aforesaid declare the local area or areas within which, or the group or class of mines with respect to which, Inspectors shall exercise their respective powers

Functions of Inspectors

(2) The Inspector shall give information to owners agents and managers of mines, situate within the local area or areas or belonging to the group or class of mines in respect of which he exercises powers under sub section (1) as to all regulations and rules which concern them respectively and as to the places where copies of such regulations and rules may be obtained

6. The Chief Inspector and any Inspector may—

- (a) make such examination and inquiry as he thinks fit in order to ascertain whether the provisions of this Act and of the regulations, rules and bye laws and of any orders made thereunder are observed in the case of any mine,

Powers of Inspectors of Mines

(Chapter II —Inspectors)

- (b) with such assistants (if any) as he thinks fit, enter, inspect and examine any mine or any part thereof at any reasonable time by day or night, but not so as unreasonably to impede or obstruct the working of the mine,
- (c) examine into, and make inquiry respecting, the state and condition of any mine or any part thereof, the ventilation of the mine, the sufficiency of the bye laws for the time being in force relating to the mine, and all matters and things connected with or relating to the safety of the persons employed in the mine

7. Any person in the service of the Government duly authorised by a special order in writing of the Chief Inspector or of an Inspector in this behalf, may, for the purpose of surveying, levelling or measuring in any mine, after giving not less than three days' notice to the manager of such mine, enter the mine and may survey, level or measure the mine or any part thereof at any reasonable time by day or night, but not so as unreasonably to impede or obstruct the working of the mine

8. Every owner, agent and manager of a mine shall afford the Chief Inspector and every Inspector and every person authorised under section 7 all reasonable facilities for making any entry, inspection, survey, measurement, examination or inquiry under this Act

9 (1) All copies of, and extracts from, registers or other records appertaining to any mine, and all other information acquired by the Chief Inspector or an Inspector or by any one assisting him, in the course of the inspection of any mine under this Act or acquired by any person authorised under section 7 in the exercise of his duties thereunder, shall be regarded as confidential

(2) If the Chief Inspector, or an Inspector or any other person referred to in sub section (1) discloses to any one, other than a Magistrate or an officer to whom he is subordinate, any such information as afore-said without the consent of the Governor General in Council or of the Local Government, he shall be guilty of a breach of official trust, and shall be punishable ¹[with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both]

(3) No Court shall proceed to the trial of any offence under this section except on complaint made by order of, or under authority from, the Governor General in Council or the Local Government, or made by a person aggrieved by the offence

MINING BOARDS AND COMMITTEES

10 (1) The Local Government may constitute for the province, or ^{Mining} for any part of the province or for any group or class of mines in the ^{Boards} province, a Mining Board consisting of—

- (a) a person in the service of the Government not being the Chief Inspector or an Inspector, nominated by the Local Government to act as chairman,
- (b) the Chief Inspector or an Inspector,
- (c) two persons neither of whom shall be the Chief Inspector nor an Inspector nominated by the Local Government, of whom one shall be a person qualified to represent the interests of persons employed in mines
- (d) two persons nominated by owners of mines or their representatives in such manner as may be prescribed

(2) The chairman shall appoint a person to act as secretary to the Board

(3) The Local Government may give directions as to the payment of travelling expenses incurred by the secretary or any member of any such Mining Board in the performance of his duty as such secretary or member

11. (1) Where under this Act any question relating to a mine is referred to a Committee the Committee shall consist of—

- (a) a chairman nominated by the Local Government or by such officer or authority as the Local Government may authorise in this behalf
- (b) a person nominated by the chairman and qualified by experience to dispose of the question referred to the Committee, and
- (c) two persons of whom one shall be nominated by the owner, agent or manager of the mine concerned and the other shall be nominated by the Local Government to represent the interests of the persons employed in the mine

(2) No Inspector or person employed in or in the management of any mine concerned shall serve as chairman or member of a Committee appointed under this section

(Chapter III — Mining Boards and Committees)

(3) Where an owner, agent or manager fails to exercise his power of nomination under clause (c) of sub section (1), the Committee may, notwithstanding such failure, proceed to inquire into and dispose of the matter referred to it

(4) The Committee shall hear and record such information as the Chief Inspector or the Inspector, or the owner, agent or manager of the mine concerned, may place before it, and shall intimate its decision to the Chief Inspector or the Inspector and to the owner, agent or manager of the mine, and shall report its decision to the Local Government

(5) On receiving such report the Local Government shall pass orders in conformity therewith unless the Chief Inspector or the owner, agent or manager of the mine has lodged an objection to the decision of the Committee, in which case the Local Government may proceed to review such decision and to pass such orders in the matter as it may think fit. If an objection is lodged by the Chief Inspector, notice of the same shall forthwith be given to the owner, agent or manager of the mine

(6) The Local Government may give directions as to the remuneration, if any, to be paid to the members of the Committee or any of them, and as to the payment of the expenses of the inquiry including such remuneration

12. (1) Any Mining Board constituted under section 10 and any Committee constituted under section 11 may exercise such of the powers of an Inspector under this Act as it thinks necessary or expedient to exercise for the purpose of deciding or reporting upon any matter referred to it

(2) Every Mining Board constituted under section 10 and every Committee appointed under section 11 shall have the powers of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the purpose of enforcing the attendance of witnesses and compelling the production of documents and material objects, and every person required by any such Mining Board or Committee to furnish information before it shall be deemed to be legally bound to do so within the meaning of section 176 of the Indian Penal Code

13. The Local Government may direct that the expenses of any inquiry conducted by a Mining Board constituted under section 10 or by a Committee appointed under section 11 shall be borne in whole or in part by the owner or agent of the mine concerned, and the amount so

MINING OPERATIONS AND MANAGEMENT OF MINES

14. The owner, agent or manager of a mine shall, in the case of an existing mine within one month from the commencement of this Act, or, in the case of a new mine, within three months after the commencement of mining operations, give to the District Magistrate of the district in which the mine is situated notice in writing in such form and containing such particulars relating to the mine as may be prescribed

Notice to be given of mining operations

15. (1) Save as may be otherwise prescribed, every mine shall be under one manager who shall have the prescribed qualifications and shall be responsible for the control, management and direction of the mine, and the owner or agent of every mine shall appoint himself or some other person, having such qualifications, to be such manager

(2) If any mine is worked without there being a manager for the mine as required by sub section (1), the owner and agent shall each be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this section

16. (1) The owner, agent and manager of every mine shall be responsible that all operations carried on in connection therewith are conducted in accordance with the provisions of this Act and of the regulations, rules and bye-laws and of any orders made thereunder

Duties and responsibilities of owners, agents and managers.

(2) In the event of any contravention of any such provisions by any person whomsoever, the owner, agent and manager of the mine shall each be deemed also to be guilty of such contravention unless he proves that he had taken all reasonable means, by publishing and to the best of his power enforcing those provisions, to prevent such contravention :

¹ These words were substituted for the words "owner agent or manager" by s. 2 and Sch. I of the Repealing and Amending Act, 1925 (37 of 1925)

(Chapter IV — Mining Operations and Management of Mines — Chapter V — Provisions as to Health and Safety)

Provided that the owner or agent shall not be so deemed if he proves—

- (a) that he was not in the habit of taking, and did not in respect of the matter in question take, any part in the management of the mine, and
- (b) that he had made all the financial and other provisions necessary to enable the manager to carry out his duties, and
- (c) that the offence was committed without his knowledge, consent or connivance

(3) Save as hereinbefore provided, it shall not be a defence in any proceedings brought against an owner or agent of a mine under this section that a manager of the mine has been appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Act

¹The provisions of this section were applied to all coal mines and to mines other than coal mines at which more than 20 persons are employed in Bengal see Calcutta Gazette, 1923, Pt. I p. 960, provisions similarly applied to Baluchistan see Bal Local Rules and Orders, Pt. II p. 24

In section 19 of the Indian Mines Act, 1923 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), after sub-section (1) the following sub-section shall be deemed to be inserted, namely:-

(1A) without prejudice to the generality of the provisions contained in sub-section (1), the Chief Inspector or the Inspector may, in any area to which the Governor-General in Council may by notification in the Gazette of India declare that this sub-section applies, by order in writing addressed to the owner, agent or manager of a mine,-

(a) prohibit the extraction or reduction of pillars in any part of the mine if, in his opinion, such operation is likely to cause the crushing of pillars or the premature collapse of any part of the workings or otherwise endanger the mine, or if, in his opinion, adequate provision against the outbreak of fire has not been made by providing for the sealing off and isolation of the part of the mine in which such operation is contemplated and for restricting the area that might be affected by a fire; or

(b) limit to such dimensions as he considers reasonable the galleries that may be driven in the mine; and the provisions of sub-sections (3), (4), (5) and (6) shall apply to an order made under this sub-section as they apply to an order made under sub-section (2).

(2) This section shall have effect for two years only from the commencement of this Act.

Provided that the Committee may on the application of the owner, agent or manager suspend the operation of a requisition under sub-section (1) pending its decision on the objection

(7) Nothing in this section shall affect the powers of a Magistrate under section 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898

(2) If the Chief Inspector or an Inspector authorised in this behalf by general or special order in writing by the Chief Inspector is of opinion that there is urgent and immediate danger to the life or safety of any person employed in any mine or part thereof, he may, by an order in writing containing a statement of the grounds of his opinion, prohibit, until the danger is removed the employment in or about the mine or part thereof of any person whose employment is not in his opinion reasonably necessary for the purpose of removing the danger.

(3) Where an order has been made under sub-section (2) by an Inspector the owner, agent or manager of the mine may within ten days after the receipt of the order appeal against the same to the Chief Inspector who may confirm, modify or cancel the order.

(4) The Chief Inspector or the Inspector making a requisition under sub-section (1) or an order under sub-section (2) and the Chief Inspector making an order (other than an order of cancellation) in appeal under sub-section (3), shall forthwith report the same to the Local Government and shall inform the owner, agent or manager of the mine that such report has been so made.

(5) If the owner, agent or manager of the mine objects to a requisition made under sub-section (1) or to an order made by the Chief Inspector under sub-section (2), or sub-section (3), he may, within twenty days after the receipt of the notice containing the requisition or of the order or after the date of the decision of the appeal, as the case may be, send his objection in writing, stating the grounds thereof, to the Local Government, which shall refer the same to a Committee.

(6) Every requisition made under sub-section (1), or order made under sub-section (2), or sub-section (3) to which objection is made under sub-section (5), shall be complied with pending the receipt at the mine of the decision of the Committee.

Provided that the Committee may, on the application of the owner, agent or manager, suspend the operation of a requisition under sub-section (1) pending its decision on the objection.

(7) Nothing in this section shall affect the powers of a Magistrate under section 144 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

Mining Board constituted in British India, and in the case of a rule or every Mining Board constituted in the province, and the regulation or rule shall not be so published until each such Board has had a reasonable opportunity of reporting as to the expediency of making the same and as to the suitability of its provisions

(4) Regulations and rules shall be published in the Gazette of India and the local official Gazette, respectively, and, on such publication, shall have effect as if enacted in this Act

31-A - (see Act 21 of 1926)
32. (1) The owner, agent or manager of a mine may, and shall, if Bye laws. called upon to do so by the Chief Inspector or Inspector, frame and submit to the Chief Inspector or Inspector a draft of such bye-laws, not being inconsistent with this Act or any regulations or rules for the time being in force, for the control and guidance of the persons acting in the management of, or employed in, the mine as such owner, agent or manager may deem necessary to prevent accidents and provide for the safety, convenience and discipline of the persons employed in the mine

(2) If any such owner, agent or manager—

- (a) fails to submit within two months a draft of bye-laws after being called upon to do so by the Chief Inspector or Inspector, or
- (b) submits a draft of bye laws which is not in the opinion of the Chief Inspector or Inspector sufficient,

(Chapter VII — Regulations, Rules and Bye laws)

the Chief Inspector or Inspector may—

(i) propose a draft of such bye laws as appear to him to be sufficient, or

(ii) propose such amendments in any draft submitted to him by the owner, agent or manager as will in his opinion, render it sufficient, and shall send such draft bye laws or draft amendments to the owner, agent or manager, as the case may be, for consideration

(3) If within a period of two months from the date on which any draft bye laws or draft amendments are sent by the Chief Inspector or Inspector to the owner, agent or manager under the provisions of sub section (2), the Chief Inspector or Inspector and the owner, agent or manager are unable to agree as to the terms of the bye laws to be made under sub section (1), the Chief Inspector or Inspector shall refer the draft bye laws for settlement to the Mining Board or, where there is no Mining Board, to such officer or authority as the Local Government may, by general or special order, appoint in this behalf

(4) (a) When such draft bye laws have been agreed to by the owner, agent or manager and the Chief Inspector or Inspector, or, when they are unable to agree, have been settled by the Mining Board or such officer or authority as aforesaid, a copy of the draft bye laws shall be sent by the Chief Inspector or Inspector to the Local Government for approval

37. Whoever, save as permitted by section 25, contravenes any provision of this Act or of any regulation, rule or bye law or of any order made thereunder prohibiting, restricting or regulating the employment or presence of persons in or about a mine shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees

accidents

38 Whoever, in contravention of the provisions of section 20, fails to give notice of any accidental occurrence shall, if the occurrence results in serious bodily injury, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or, if the occurrence results in loss of life, be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both

(Chapter VIII —Penalties and Procedure)

39 Whoever contravenes any provision of this Act or of any regulation, rule or bye law or of any order made thereunder for the contravention of which no penalty is hereinbefore provided shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, and, in the case of a continuing contravention, with a further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day on which the offender is proved to have persisted in the contravention after the date of the first conviction

Disobedience of orders

40 (1) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, whoever contravenes any provision of this Act or of any regulation, rule or bye-law or of any order made thereunder, shall be punishable, if such contravention results in loss of life with imprisonment which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both, or, if such contravention results in serious bodily injury, with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both or if such contravention otherwise causes injury or danger to workers or other persons in or about the mine with imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both

Contravention of law with dangerous results

(2) Where a person having been convicted under this section is again convicted thereunder he shall be punishable with double the punishment provided by sub section (1)

(3) Any Court imposing or confirming in appeal revision or otherwise a sentence of fine passed under this section may, when passing judgment order the whole or any part of the fine recovered to be paid as compensation to the person injured or in the case of his death to his legal representative

Provided that if the fine is imposed in a case which is subject to appeal, no such payment shall be made before the period allowed for presenting the appeal has elapsed or if an appeal has been presented, before the decision of the appeal 41 No prosecution shall be instituted against any owner agent or manager for any offence under this Act except at the instance of the Chief Inspector or of the District Magistrate or of an Inspector authorised in this behalf by general or special order in writing by the Chief Inspector.

[THE SCHEDULE]

ACT No V of 1923¹

[23rd February 1923]

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to steam-boilers

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to steam boilers, It is hereby enacted as follows —

1 (1) This Act may be called the Indian Boilers Act, 1923

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan and the Sonthal Parganas

Short title
extent and
ment

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor General in Council may, by notification² in the Gazette of India appoint

2 In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) 'accident' means an explosion of a boiler or steam pipe or any damage to a boiler or steam pipe which is calculated to weaken the strength thereof so as to render it liable to explode

² This Act came into force from 1st January 1924 see Notification No A 61, dated 4th December 1923 Gen R. and O, Vol V p 134

- (b) "boiler" means any closed vessel exceeding five gallons in capacity which is used expressly for generating steam under pressure ~~for use outside such vessel~~, and includes any mounting or other fitting attached to such vessel, which is wholly or partly under pressure when steam is shut off,
- (c) "Chief Inspector" and "Inspector" mean, respectively, a person appointed to be a Chief Inspector and an Inspector under this Act,
- (d) "owner" includes any person using a boiler as agent of the owner thereof and any person using a boiler which he has hired or obtained on loan from the owner thereof,
- (e) "prescribed" means prescribed by regulations or rules made under this Act,
- (f) "steam pipe" means any main pipe exceeding three inches in internal diameter through which steam passes directly from a boiler to a prime mover or other first user, and includes any connected fitting of a steam-pipe, and
- (g) "structural alteration, addition or renewal" shall not be deemed to include any renewal or replacement of a petty nature when the part or fitting used for replacement is not inferior in strength, efficiency or otherwise to the replaced part or fitting

of application

3. (1) Nothing in this Act shall apply in the case of any boiler or steam pipe—

- (a) in any steam ship as defined in section 3 of the ¹Indian Steamships Act, 1881, or in any steam-vessel as defined in section VII of 2 of the Inland Steam-vessels Act, 1917, or 1 of 19
- (b) belonging to or under the control of His Majesty's Navy or the Royal Indian Marine Service

(2) The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, declare that the provisions of this Act shall not apply in the case of boilers or steam pipes, or of any specified class of boilers or steam pipes, belonging to or under the control of any railway² administered by the Government or by any railway company as defined in clause (5) of section 3 of the Indian Railways Act, 1890

² For list of Railways notified under this section, see Gen. R. & O. Vol. V, p. 134

4. The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, exclude¹ any specified area from the operation of all or any specified provisions of this Act Power to limit extent.

5. (1) The Local Government may appoint² such persons as it thinks fit to be Inspectors for the province for the purposes of this Act, and may define the local limits within which each Inspector shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed on Inspectors by or under this Act Appointment of Chief Inspectors and Inspectors

(2) The Local Government shall likewise appoint³ a person to be Chief Inspector for the province, who may, in addition to the powers and duties conferred or imposed on the Chief Inspector by or under this Act, exercise any power or perform any duty so conferred or imposed on Inspectors

(3) Every Chief Inspector and every Inspector shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code

6. Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, no owner of a boiler shall use the boiler or permit it to be used— Prohibition of use of unregistered or uncertified boiler.

(a) unless it has been registered in accordance with the provisions of this Act,

(b) in the case of any boiler which has been transferred from one province to another, until the transfer has been reported in the prescribed manner

(c) unless a certificate or provisional order authorising the use of the boiler is for the time being in force under this Act,

(d) at a pressure higher than the maximum pressure recorded in such certificate or provisional order,

(e) where the Local Government has made rules requiring that boilers shall be in charge of persons holding certificates of competency, unless the boiler is in charge of a person holding the certificate required by such rules

Provided that any boiler registered, or any boiler certified or licensed, under any Act hereby repealed shall be deemed to have been registered or certified, as the case may be, under this Act

² For such appointment in Coorg see Coorg District Gazette, 1925, Pt I, p 31, and ibid, 1926, Pt I p 94

³ For appointment under this sub-section in Coorg, see ibid

Provided, further, that, until the expiration of twelve months from the commencement of this Act, nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any boiler in any local area in which the registration of, or a certificate or licence for the use of, a boiler was not previously required by law

Registration 7. (1) The owner of any boiler which is not registered under the provisions of this Act may apply to the Inspector to have the boiler registered. Every such application shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee

(2) On receipt of an application under sub section (1), the Inspector shall fix a date, within thirty days or such shorter period as may be prescribed from the date of the receipt, for the examination of the boiler and shall give the owner thereof not less than ten days' notice of the date so fixed

(3) On the said date the Inspector shall proceed to measure and examine the boiler and to determine in the prescribed manner the maximum pressure, if any, at which such boiler may be used, and shall report the result of the examination to the Chief Inspector in the prescribed form

(4) The Chief Inspector, on receipt of the report may—

(a) register the boiler and assign a register number thereto either forthwith or after satisfying himself that any structural alteration, addition or renewal which he may deem necessary has been made in or to the boiler or any steam pipe attached thereto, or

(b) refuse to register the boiler

Provided that where the Chief Inspector refuses to register a boiler, he shall forthwith communicate his refusal to the owner of the boiler together with the reasons therefor

(5) The Chief Inspector shall, on registering the boiler, order the issue to the owner of a certificate in the prescribed form authorising the use of the boiler for a period not exceeding twelve months at a pressure not exceeding such maximum pressure as he thinks fit and as is in accordance with the regulations made under this Act

(6) The Inspector shall forthwith convey to the owner of the boiler the orders of the Chief Inspector and shall in accordance therewith issue to the owner any certificate of which the issue has been ordered, and, where the boiler has been registered, the owner shall within the prescribed period cause the register number to be permanently marked thereon in the prescribed manner

8. (1) A certificate authorising the use of a boiler shall cease to be in force— Renewal of certificate.

- (a) on the expiry of the period for which it was granted, or
- (b) when any accident occurs to the boiler, or
- (c) when the boiler is moved the boiler not being a vertical boiler the heating surface of which is less than two hundred square feet, or a portable or vehicular boiler, or
- (d) when any structural alteration, addition or renewal is made in or to the boiler, or
- (e) if the Chief Inspector in any particular case so directs, when any structural alteration, addition, or renewal is made in or to any steam pipe attached to the boiler, or
- (f) on the communication to the owner of the boiler of an order of the Chief Inspector or Inspector prohibiting its use on the ground that it or any steam pipe attached thereto is in a dangerous condition

(2) Where an order is made under clause (f) of sub section (1), the grounds on which the order is made shall be communicated to the owner with the order

(3) When a certificate ceases to be in force, the owner of the boiler may apply to the Inspector for a renewal thereof for such period not exceeding twelve months as he may specify in the application

(4) An application under sub section (3) shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee and on receipt thereof, the Inspector shall fix a date, within thirty days or such shorter period as may be prescribed from the date of the receipt, for the examination of the boiler and shall give the owner thereof not less than ten days' notice of the date so fixed

Provided that where the certificate has ceased to be in force owing to the making of any structural alteration, addition or renewal, the Chief Inspector may dispense with the payment of any fee

(5) On the said date the Inspector shall examine the boiler in the prescribed manner and if he is satisfied that the boiler and the steam-pipe or steam pipes attached therein are in good condition shall issue a renewed certificate authorising the use of the boiler for such period not exceeding twelve months and at a pressure not exceeding such maximum pressure as he thinks fit and as is in accordance with the regulations made under this Act

Provided that if the Inspector—

(a) proposes to issue any certificate—

(i) having validity for a less period than the period entered in the application, or

(ii) increasing or reducing the maximum pressure at which the boiler may be used, or

(b) proposes to order any structural alteration, addition or renewal to be made in or to the boiler or any steam pipe attached thereto, or

(c) is of opinion that the boiler is not fit for use, the Inspector shall, within forty eight hours of making the examination, inform the owner of the boiler in writing of his opinion and the reasons therefor, and shall forthwith report the case for orders to the Chief Inspector

(6) The Chief Inspector, on receipt of a report under sub section (5), may, subject to the provisions of this Act and of the regulations made hereunder, order the renewal of the certificate in such terms and on such conditions if any as he thinks fit or may refuse to renew it

Provided that where the Chief Inspector refuses to renew a certificate, he shall forthwith communicate his refusal to the owner of the boiler, together with the reasons therefor

(7) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent an owner of a boiler from applying for a renewed certificate therefor at any time during the currency of a certificate

9 Where the Inspector reports the case of any boiler to the Chief Inspector under sub section (3) of section 7 or sub section (5) of section 8, he may, if the boiler is not a boiler the use of which has been prohibited under clause (f) of sub section (1) of section 8 grant to the owner thereof a provisional order in writing permitting the boiler to be used at a pressure not exceeding such maximum pressure as he thinks fit and as is in accordance with the regulations made under this Act pending the receipt of the orders of the Chief Inspector. Such provisional order shall cease to be in force—

(a) on the expiry of six months from the date on which it is granted, or

orders

(b) on receipt of the orders of the Chief Inspector, or

(c) in any of the cases referred to in clauses (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of sub section (1) of section 8, and on so ceasing to be in force shall be surrendered to the Inspector

10 (1) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, when the period of a certificate relating to a boiler has expired the owner shall, provided that he has applied before the expiry of that period for a renewal of the certificate be entitled to use the boiler at the maximum pressure entered in the former certificate pending the issue of orders on the application

certificate

(2) Nothing in sub section (1) shall be deemed to authorise the use of a boiler in any of the cases referred to in clauses (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of sub section (1) of section 8 occurring after the expiry of the period of the certificate

11. The Chief Inspector may at any time withdraw or revoke any certificate or provisional order on the report of an Inspector or other

Revocation of certificate or provision-

wise—

(a) if there is reason to believe that the certificate or provisional order has been fraudulently obtained or has been granted erroneously or without sufficient examination, or

(b) if the boiler in respect of which it has been granted has sustained injury or has ceased to be in good condition or

(c) where the Local Government has made rules requiring that boilers shall be in charge of persons holding certificates of competency if the boiler is in charge of a person not holding the certificate required by such rules or

(d) where no such rules have been made if the boiler is in charge of a person who is not having regard to the condition of the boiler in the opinion of the Chief Inspector competent to have charge thereof

Provided that where the Chief Inspector withdraws or revokes a certificate or provisional order on the ground specified in clause (d) he shall communicate to the owner of the boiler his reasons in writing for the withdrawal or revocation and the order shall not take effect until the expiry of thirty days from the receipt of such communication

12 No structural alteration addition or renewal shall be made in or to any boiler registered under this Act unless such alteration, addition or renewal has been sanctioned in writing by the Chief Inspector

Alterations
and renewals

Alterations
and renewals to steam pipes

13. Before the owner of any boiler registered under this Act makes any structural alteration, addition or renewal in or to any steam pipe attached to the boiler, he shall transmit to the Chief Inspector a report in writing of his intention, and shall send therewith such particulars of the proposed alteration, addition or renewal as may be prescribed

owner at examination

14. (1) On any date fixed under this Act for the examination of a boiler, the owner thereof shall be bound—

- (a) to afford to the Inspector all reasonable facilities for the examination and all such information as may reasonably be required of him,
- (b) to have the boiler properly prepared and ready for examination in the prescribed manner, and
- (c) in the case of an application for the registration of a boiler, to provide such drawings, specifications, certificates and other particulars as may be prescribed

(2) If the owner fails, without reasonable cause, to comply with the provisions of sub section (1), the Inspector shall refuse to make the examination and shall report the case to the Chief Inspector who shall, unless sufficient cause to the contrary is shown, require the owner to file a fresh application under section 7 or section 8, as the case may be, and may forbid him to use the boiler notwithstanding anything contained in section 10

Production of certificates, etc

15 The owner of any boiler who holds a certificate or provisional order relating thereto shall, at all reasonable times during the period for which the certificate or order is in force, be bound to produce the same when called upon to do so by a District Magistrate, Commissioner of Police or Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction in the area in which the boiler is for the time being, or by the Chief Inspector or by an Inspector or by any Inspector appointed under the Indian Factories Act, 1911, or by any person specially authorised in writing by a District Magistrate or Commissioner of Police

certificates,
etc

16. If any person becomes the owner of a boiler during the period for which a certificate or provisional order relating thereto is in force, the preceding owner shall be bound to make over to him the certificate or provisional order

entry

17 An Inspector may, for the purpose of inspecting or examining a boiler or any steam pipe attached thereto or of seeing that any provision of this Act or of any regulation or rule made hereunder has been or is being observed, at all reasonable times enter any place or building within the limits of the area for which he has been appointed in which he has reason to believe that a boiler is in use

18. (1) If any accident occurs to a boiler or steam pipe, the owner or person in charge thereof shall, within twenty four hours of the accident, report the same in writing to the Inspector. Every such report shall contain a true description of the nature of the accident and of the injury, if any, caused thereby to the boiler or to the steam pipe or to any person, and shall be in sufficient detail to enable the Inspector to judge of the gravity of the accident. Report of accidents

(2) Every person shall be bound to answer truly to the best of his knowledge and ability every question put to him in writing by the Inspector as to the cause nature or extent of the accident

19 Any person considering himself aggrieved by—

- (a) an order made or purporting to be made by an Inspector in the exercise of any power conferred by or under this Act, or
- (b) a refusal of an Inspector to make any order or to issue any certificate which he is recused or enabled by or under this Act to make or issue

Appeals to Chief

may, within thirty days from the date on which such order or refusal is communicated to him, appeal against the order or refusal to the Chief Inspector

20. Any person considering himself aggrieved by an original or appellate order of the Chief Inspector— Appeals to appellate authority

- (a) refusing to register a boiler or to grant or renew a certificate in respect of a boiler, or
- (b) refusing to grant a certificate having validity for the full period applied for or
- (c) refusing to grant a certificate authorising the use of a boiler at the maximum pressure desired, or
- (d) withdrawing or revoking a certificate or provisional order, or
- (e) reducing the amount of pressure specified in any certificate or the period for which such certificate has been granted, or

- (f) ordering any structural alteration, addition or renewal to be made in or to a boiler or steam-pipe or refusing sanction to the making of any structural alteration, addition or renewal in or to a boiler, may, within thirty days of the communication to him of such order, lodge with the Chief Inspector an appeal to an appellate authority to be constituted by the Local Government under this Act

Finality of orders

21 An order of an appellate authority under section 20 and save as otherwise provided in sections 19 and 20 an order of the Chief Inspector or of an Inspector shall be final and shall not be called in question in any Court

Minor penalties

22 Any owner of a boiler who refuses or without reasonable excuse neglects—

- (i) to surrender a provisional order as required by section 9, or
- (ii) to produce a certificate or provisional order when duly called upon to do so under section 15, or
- (iii) to make over to the new owner of a boiler a certificate or provisional order as required by section 16, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees

Penalties for illegal use of boiler

23 Any owner of a boiler who, in any case in which a certificate or provisional order is required for the use of the boiler under this Act, uses the boiler either without any such certificate or order being in force or at a higher pressure than that allowed thereby, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, and, in the case of a continuing offence, with an additional fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for each day after the first day in regard to which he is convicted of having persisted in the offence

APPLICATION OF ACT.

Cantonments or parts of cantonments in which Act to be operative.

3. (1) The Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, may, by notification in the local official Gazette, declare this Act to be operative in any cantonment or part of a cantonment situate in the Province, other than a cantonment situate within the limits of a presidency-town

(2) Before issuing a notification under sub-section (1) in respect of any cantonment or part of a cantonment, the Local Government shall cause local inquiry to be made with a view to determining whether it is expedient to issue such notification, and what portion (if any) of the area proposed to be included therein should be excluded therefrom

Saving of written instruments

4. Nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions of any written instrument executed by or on behalf of the East India Company or the Government, unless the other party entitled and the Secretary of State for India in Council consent in writing to be bound by the terms of this Act

APPROPRIATION OF HOUSES

Liability of houses to appropriation

5. Every house situate in a cantonment or part of a cantonment in respect of which a notification under sub-section (1) of section 3 is for the time being in force shall be liable to appropriation by the Government on a lease in the manner and subject to the conditions hereinafter provided

(Chapter III — Appropriation of Houses)

6. (1) Where the ¹[Officer Commanding the station] considers that the liability imposed by section 5 should be enforced in respect of any house, he shall serve a notice on the owner of the house requiring him to permit the house to be inspected, measured and surveyed by such person and on such day not being less than three days from the service of the notice, and at such time as may be specified in the notice

Inspection of house required for occupation by the military.

(2) On the day and at the time so specified, the owner shall be bound to afford all reasonable facilities to the person specified in the notice for the purpose of the inspection, measurement and survey of the house, and, if he refuses or neglects to do so, the said person may, subject to rules made under this Act enter on the premises and do all such things as may be reasonably necessary for the said purpose

7. (1) If on the report of such person as aforesaid, the ¹[Officer Commanding the station] is satisfied that the house is suitable for occupation by a military officer or a military mess, he may, with the previous sanction of the Officer Commanding the District, by notice—

Procedure for taking house on lease

(a) require the owner to execute a lease of the house to the Government for a specified period which shall not be less than five years,

(b) require the existing occupier, if any, to vacate the house, and

(c) require the owner to execute within such time as may be specified in the notice such repairs as may, in the opinion of the ¹[Officer Commanding the station], be necessary for the purpose of putting the house into a state of reasonable repair

(2) Every notice issued under sub section (1) shall state the amount of the annual rent proposed as reasonable for the house, calculated on the assumption that the owner will carry out the required repairs, if any. It shall also contain an estimate of the cost of such repairs

(3) The following shall be deemed to be conditions of every lease executed under sub section (1): namely —

(a) that the house shall on the expiration of the lease, be re-delivered to the owner in a state of reasonable repair, and

(Chapter III —Appropriation of Houses)

(b) that the grounds and the garden, if any, appertaining to the house shall be maintained in the condition in which they are at the time at which the lease is executed

Procedure to be observed before taking a house on lease

8. The Officer Commanding the District shall not sanction the issue of any notice under section 7 unless he is satisfied—

(i) that the house in respect of which it is proposed to issue the notice is suitable for occupation by a military officer or a military mess, and

(ii) that there is not in the cantonment or, if this Act is in force in a part only of the cantonment, then in that part thereof, a sufficient number of houses already available and suitable for occupation by military officers or military messes whose accommodation in the cantonment or a part thereof, as the case may be, is in his opinion necessary or expedient

Sanction to be obtained before a house is occupied as a hospital etc

9 No house in any cantonment or part of a cantonment in which this Act is operative shall, unless it was so occupied at the date of the issue of the notification declaring this Act or the ¹Cantonments (House Accommodation) Act, 1902, as the case may be, to be operative, be occupied for the purposes of a hospital, school, school hostel, bank, hotel, or shop, or by a railway administration, a company or firm engaged in trade or business or a club, without the previous sanction of the Officer Commanding the District given with the concurrence of the Commissioner or, in a province where there are no Commissioners, of the Collector

Houses not to be appropriated in certain cases

10 No notice shall be issued under section 7 if the house—

- (a) was at the date of the issue of the notification declaring this Act or the ¹Cantonments (House Accommodation) Act, 1902 as the case may be to be operative in the cantonment or part of the cantonment, or is with such sanction as is required by section 9, occupied as a hospital, school, school hostel, bank, hotel or shop, and has been so occupied continuously during the three years immediately preceding the time when the occasion for issuing the notice arises, or
- (b) was, at the date of such a notification as is referred to in clause (a), or is, with such sanction as aforesaid, occupied by a railway administration or by a company or firm engaged in trade or business or by a club, or
- (c) is occupied by the owner, or

II of 1

(Chapter III — Appropriation of Houses)

(d) has been appropriated by the Local Government with the concurrence of the Officer Commanding the District, or by the Governor General in Council, for use as a public office or for any other purpose

11. (1) If a house is unoccupied, a notice issued under section 7 may require the owner to give possession of the same to the ¹[Officer Commanding the station] within twenty one days from the service of the notice

Time to be allowed for giving possession of house

(2) If a house is occupied, a notice issued under section 7 shall not require its vacation in less than thirty days from the service of the notice

(3) Where a notice has been issued under section 7 and the house has been vacated in pursuance thereof, the lease shall be deemed to have commenced on the date on which the house was so vacated

12. If the owner fails to give possession of a house to the ¹[Officer Commanding the station] in pursuance of a notice issued under section 7, or if the existing occupier fails to vacate a house in pursuance of such a notice, the District Magistrate, by himself or by another person generally or specially authorised by him in this behalf, shall enter on the premises and enforce the surrender of the house

Surrender of house when to be enforced

13. (1) If a house, in respect of which a notice is issued under section 7, is shown to the satisfaction of the Local Government, or is proved by a decree or order of a Court of competent jurisdiction to have been erected—

Option in certain cases for owner on whom notice is issued under section 7 to call upon the Government to purchase

(a) under any conditions rules regulations or orders which were in force in Bengal prior to the eighth day of December, 1864 and conferred on the owner the option of offering the house for sale to the military officer applying for its appropriation for his occupation or to the East India Company or the Government or

(b) under any conditions rules regulations or orders which were in force in Bombay prior to the first day of June, 1875, and conferred such an option as is described in clause (a) then the owner shall have the option of either complying with the notice or offering the house for sale to the Government

(2) If the owner elects to sell the house and the Government is willing to purchase it, the question of the amount of the purchase money to be paid shall, in the event of disagreement, be referred to a Committee of Arbitration

Provision where house is held on long lease by a tenant

14 (1) If a house, in respect of which a notice is issued under section 7 is occupied by a tenant holding in good faith and for valuable consideration under a registered lease for any term exceeding one year, the Secretary of State for India in Council shall for the term of one year from the date on which the house is vacated in pursuance of the notice, or for the unexpired term of the lease whichever is the shorter, be liable to the owner for the rent fixed by the registered lease instead of for the rent payable under this Act if the rent so fixed exceeds the rent so payable

(2) If a house, in respect of which a notice is issued under section 7, is occupied by a tenant holding in good faith and for valuable consideration under a registered lease from year to year, the Secretary of State for India in Council shall be liable as aforesaid for the term of six months from the date on which the house is vacated in pursuance of the notice

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed—

(a) to render the said Secretary of State in Council so liable unless an application in writing in this behalf is made by the owner to the ¹[Officer Commanding the station] within fifteen days from the service of the notice, or

(b) to limit or otherwise affect any agreement between the said Secretary of State in Council and the owner

Power for owner to require reference to arbitration on question of rent

15 (1) If the owner considers that the rent stated in a notice issued under section 7 is not reasonable he may, within a period of fifteen days from the service of such notice require that the matter be referred by the ¹[Officer Commanding the station] to a Committee of Arbitration

(2) If the owner does not make such a requisition within the said period, he shall be deemed to have accepted the rent so offered

Power for owner to require reference to arbitration on question of repairs

16 (1) If the owner fails to execute any repairs to a house as required by a notice issued to him under section 7, the ¹[Officer Commanding the station] may by notice require the owner to execute the repairs within such period, not being less than fifteen days, as may be specified in the notice

(Chapter III —Appropriation of Houses)

(2) If the owner objects to any requisition contained in a notice issued under sub section (1), he may, within fifteen days from the service of the notice, require that the matter be referred by the ¹[Officer Commanding the station] to a Committee of Arbitration

17. Where—

(a) the owner fails to comply with a notice issued under sub-section (1) of section 16 and has not, within fifteen days from the service of such notice, required that the matter be referred to a Committee of Arbitration, or

Power to have repairs executed and recover cost.

(b) a Committee of Arbitration decides that repairs are necessary and the extent to which they are necessary, and specifies the period within which they are to be executed, and the owner fails to execute them within such period, and has not within one month from the date of the decision appealed therefrom to the Civil Court as hereinafter provided, or

(c) the owner fails to execute within such period as may be specified by the Civil Court hearing such appeal such repairs as the Court may decide to be necessary, the ²[Military Engineer] Services or the Public Works Department shall, on the application of the ¹[Officer Commanding the station] cause the repairs specified in the notice or if the matter has been referred to a Committee of Arbitration in the decision of the Committee or the Civil Court as the case may be to be executed at the expense of the Government and the cost thereof may be deducted from the rent payable to the owner

[PASSED BY THE INDIAN LEGISLATURE]

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 3rd March, 1931)

An Act to give effect in British India to the Treaty for the Limitation and Reduction of Naval Armament.

WHEREAS it is expedient to give effect in British India to the Treaty for the Limitation and Reduction of Naval Armament signed at London on behalf of His Majesty on the twenty second day of April, 1930, It is hereby enacted as follows —

1. This Act may be called the Indian Naval Armament Short title (Amendment) Act, 1931

2 In the preamble to the Indian Naval Armament Act, Amendment of 1923 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act) preamble Act after the figures VII of 1923 “ 1922 ”, the following shall be inserted, namely —

“ and to the Treaty for the Limitation and Reduction of Naval Armament signed at London on behalf of His Majesty on the twenty second day of April, 1930 ”

3. In clause (c) of section 2 of the said Act, after the Amendment of figures “ 1922 ” the following shall be inserted, namely — section 2 Act VII of 1923

‘ and of the Treaty for the Limitation and Reduction of Naval Armament signed at London on behalf of His Majesty on the twenty second day of April, 1930 ’

4 To the Schedule to the said Act the following shall be Amendment of added, namely — Schedule Act VII of 1923

“ ARTICLES OF TREATY FOR THE LIMITATION AND REDUCTION OF NAVAL ARMAMENT

Article 3

1 For the purposes of the Washington Treaty, the definition of an aircraft carrier given in Chapter II Part 4 of the said Treaty is hereby replaced by the following definition the expression ‘ aircraft carrier ’ includes any surface vessel of war whatever its displacement, designed for the 3 Each naval combatant vessel shall be rated at its displacement tonnage when in the standard condition. The word "ton", except in the expression "metric tons", shall be understood to be the ton of 2,240 pounds (1,016 kilos).

Article 7

1 No submarine the standard displacement of which exceeds 2,000 tons (2,032 metric tons) or with a gun above 5 1 inch (130 mm) calibre shall be acquired by or constructed by or for any of the High Contracting Parties

2 Each of the High Contracting Parties may, however, retain, build or acquire a maximum number of three submarines of a standard displacement not exceeding 2,800 tons (2,845 metric tons), these submarines may carry guns not above 6 1 inch (155 mm) calibre. Within this number, France may retain one unit, already launched, of 2,880 tons (2,926 metric tons), with guns the calibre of which is 8 inches (203 mm)

4 As from the coming into force of the present Treaty in respect of all the High Contracting Parties, no submarine the standard displacement of which exceeds 2,000 tons (2,032 metric tons) or with a gun above 5 1 inch (130 mm) calibre shall be constructed within the jurisdiction of any of the High Contracting Parties, except as provided in paragraph 2 of this Article "

the specific and exclusive purpose of carrying aircraft and so constructed that aircraft can be launched therefrom and landed thereon.

2. The fitting of a landing-on or flying-off platform or deck on a capital ship, cruiser or destroyer, provided such vessel was not designed or adapted exclusively as an aircraft carrier shall not cause any vessel so fitted to be charged against or classified in the category of aircraft carriers.

Article 4.

1. As from the coming into force of the present Treaty in respect of all the High Contracting Parties, no aircraft carrier of 10,000 tons (10,160 metric tons) or less standard displacement, mounting a gun above 6.1 inch (155 mm) calibre shall be constructed within the jurisdiction of any of the High Contracting Parties.

Article 5.

An aircraft carrier must not be designed and constructed for carrying a more powerful armament than that authorised by Article IX or Article X of the Washington Treaty, or by Article I of the present Treaty, as the case may be.

Whenever in the said Articles IX and X the calibre of 6 inches (152 mm.) is mentioned, the calibre of 6.1 inches (155 mm.) is substituted therefor.

Article 6.

1. The rules for determining standard displacement prescribed in Chapter II, Part I of the Washington Treaty shall apply to all surface vessels of war of each of the High Contracting Parties.

2. The standard displacement of a submarine is the surface displacement of the vessel complete (exclusive of the water in non-water-tight structure) fully manned, engined, and equipped ready for sea, including all armament and ammunition, equipment, outfit, provisions for crew, miscellaneous stores, and implements of every description that are intended to be carried in war, but without fuel, lubricating oil, fresh water or ballast water of any kind on board.

(b) despatch or deliver, or allow to be despatched or delivered, from any place in British India any ship which has been, either wholly or partly, built, altered, armed or equipped as a vessel of war in any part of His Majesty's Dominions or in a State in India otherwise than under and in accordance with any law for the time being in force in that part or State

Licences

4 (1) A licence under this Act for any of the purposes specified in section 3 may be granted by the Local Government, and shall not be refused unless it appears to the Local Government that such refusal is necessary for the purpose of securing the observance of the obligations imposed by the Treaty, and, where a licence is granted subject to conditions, the conditions shall be such only as the Local Government may think necessary for the purpose aforesaid

¹ This Act was brought into force from 10th November 1923—Vide Notification No. 42 dated the 9th November 1923 Gen R and O, Vol V, p 258.

(2) An application for a licence under this section shall be in such form and shall be accompanied by such designs and particulars as the Local Government may, by general or special order, require

5. (1) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of section 3, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both Offences against the Act

(2) Where an offence punishable under sub section (1) has been committed by a company or corporation, every director and manager of such company or corporation shall be punishable thereunder unless he proves that the act constituting the offence took place without his knowledge and consent

(3) Nothing contained in section 517 or section 518 or section 520 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898 shall be deemed to authorise the destruction or confiscation under the order of any Criminal Court of any ship which is liable to forfeiture under this Act or of any part of such ship

6 Any ship which has been, either wholly or partly, built, altered, armed, or equipped as a vessel of war in British India in contravention of section 3, or in any other part of His Majesty's Dominions or any State in India in contravention of any like provision of law in force in that part or State shall if found in British India be liable to forfeiture under this Act Liability of ships to forfeiture

7 (1) Where a ship is liable to forfeiture under this Act,—

- (a) any Presidency Magistrate or Magistrate of the first class, or
 - (b) any commissioned officer on full pay in the military naval or air service of His Majesty or any gazetted officer of the Royal Indian Marine Service or
 - (c) any officer of customs or police officer not below such rank¹ as may be designated in this behalf by the Governor General in Council
- Seizure detention and search of ships may seize such ship and detain it and if the ship is found at sea within the territorial waters of British India may bring it to any convenient port in British India

¹ For notifications designating the rank of such officers see Gen. R. and O., Vol. V, p. 258

(2) Any officer taking any action under sub section (1) shall forthwith report the same through his official superiors to the Local Government

(3) The Local Government shall, within thirty days of the seizure, either cause the ship to be released or make or cause to be made, in the manner hereinafter provided, an application for the forfeiture thereof, and may make such orders for the temporary disposal of the ship as it thinks suitable

in forfeiture
of ships

8. (1) An application for the forfeiture of a ship under this Act may be made by, or under authority from, the Local Government to any competent Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the ship is for the time being

(2) On receipt of any such application, the Court shall cause notice thereof and of the date fixed for the hearing of the application to be served upon all persons appearing to it to have an interest in the ship, and may give such directions for the temporary disposal of the ship as it thinks fit

(3) For the purpose of disposing of an application under this section, the Court shall have the same powers and follow, as nearly as may be, the same procedure as it respectively has and follows for the purpose of the trial of suits under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and any order made by the Court under this section shall be deemed to be a decree, and the provisions of the said Code in regard to the execution of decrees shall, as far as they are applicable, apply accordingly

(4) Where the Court is satisfied that the ship is liable to forfeiture under this Act, it shall pass an order forfeiting the ship to His Majesty.

Provided that, where any person having an interest in the ship proves to the satisfaction of the Court that he has not abetted, or connived at, or by his negligence facilitated, in any way, a contravention of section 3 in respect of the ship, and such ship has not been built as a vessel of war, it may pass such other order as it thinks fit in respect of the ship or, if it be sold, of the sale proceeds thereof

Provided, further, that in no case shall any ship which has been ordered, armed or equipped as a vessel of war be released until it has been restored, to the satisfaction of the Local Government, to such condition as not to render it liable to forfeiture under this Act

(5) The Local Government or any person aggrieved by any order of a Court, other than a High Court, under this section may, within three months of the date of such order, appeal to the High Court.

9. Where a ship has been forfeited to His Majesty under section 8, it may be disposed of in such manner as the Local Government, subject to the control of the Governor General in Council, directs Disposal of forfeit

Provided that, where the ship is sold under this section, due regard shall be had to the obligations imposed by the Treaty

10. If, in any trial, appeal or other proceeding under the foregoing provisions of this Act any question arises as to whether a ship is a vessel of war or whether any alteration, arming or equipping of a ship is such as to adapt it for use as a vessel of war the question shall be referred to and determined by the Governor General in Council whose decision shall be final and shall not be questioned in any Court Special proof of relevant facts.

11 (1) Where a ship which has been seized or detained under section 7 or section 8 and has not been released by competent authority under this Act proceeds to sea the master of the ship shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees and the owner and any person who sends the ship to sea shall be likewise so punishable unless such owner or person prove that the offence was committed without his knowledge and consent Penalties for proceeding to sea after seizure

(2) Where any ship so proceeding to sea takes to sea, when on board thereof in the execution of his duty, any officer empowered by this Act to seize and detain the ship, the owner and master shall further each be punishable, on the order of the Court trying an offence punishable under sub-section (1), to pay all the expenses of and incidental to such officer being taken to sea and shall further be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day until such officer returns or until such time as would enable him after leaving the ship to return to the port from which he was taken

(3) Any expenses ordered to be paid under sub section (2) may be recovered in the manner provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the recovery of a fine 398,

12. (1) Any person empowered by this Act to seize and detain any ship may, at any reasonable time by day or night enter any dockyard, shipyard or other place and make inquiries respecting any ship which he has reason to believe is liable to forfeiture under this Act, and may search such ship with a view to ascertaining whether the provisions of this Act have been or are being duly observed in respect thereof and every person in charge of or employed in such place shall on request be bound to give the person so empowered all reasonable facilities for such entry and search and for making such inquiries Power to enter dock yards, etc.

(2) The provisions of sections 101, 102 and 103 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall apply in the case of all searches made under this section

Courts by which and conditions subject to which offences may be tried.

13 No Court inferior to that of a Presidency Magistrate or Magistrate of the first class shall proceed to the trial of any offence punishable under this Act, and no Court shall proceed to the trial of any such offence except on complaint made by, or under authority from, the Local Government

Indemnity

14. No prosecution, suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act

ARTICLE V

No capital ship exceeding 35,000 tons (35,560 metric tons) standard displacement shall be acquired by, or constructed by, for, or within the jurisdiction of, any of the Contracting Powers

ARTICLE VI

No capital ship of any of the Contracting Powers shall carry a gun with a calibre in excess of 16 inches (406 millimetres)

ARTICLE IX

No aircraft carrier exceeding 27,000 tons (27,432 metric tons) standard displacement shall be acquired by, or constructed by, for, or within the jurisdiction of, any of the Contracting Powers

• • • • •

No aircraft carrier of any of the Contracting Powers shall carry a gun with a calibre in excess of 8 inches (203 millimetres) Without prejudice to the provisions of Article IX, if the armament carried includes guns exceeding 6 inches (152 millimetres) in calibre the total number of guns carried except anti aircraft guns and guns not exceeding 5 inches (127 millimetres), shall not exceed ten. If alternatively the armament contains no guns exceeding 6 inches (152 millimetres) in calibre, the number of guns is not limited. In either case the number of anti-aircraft guns and of guns not exceeding 5 inches (127 millimetres) is not limited.

ARTICLE XI

No vessel of war exceeding 10,000 tons (10,160 metric tons) standard displacement, other than a capital ship or aircraft carrier, shall be acquired by, or constructed by, for, or within the jurisdiction of, any of the Contracting Powers. Vessels not specifically built as fighting ships nor taken in time of peace under Government control for fighting purposes, which are employed on fleet duties or as troop transports or in some other way for the purpose of assisting in the prosecution of hostilities otherwise than as fighting ships, shall not be within the limitations of this Article.

ARTICLE XII

No vessel of war of any of the Contracting Powers, hereafter laid down, other than a capital ship, shall carry a gun with a calibre in excess of 8 inches (203 millimetres).

ARTICLE XIV

No preparations shall be made in merchant ships in time of peace for the installation of warlike armaments for the purpose of converting such ships into vessels of war, other than the necessary stiffening of decks for the mounting of guns not exceeding 6-inch (152 millimetres) calibre.

ARTICLE XV

No vessel of war constructed within the jurisdiction of any of the Contracting Powers for a non Contracting Power shall exceed the limitations as to displacement and armament prescribed by the present Treaty for vessels of a similar type which may be constructed by or for any of the Contracting Powers, provided, however, that the displacement for aircraft carriers constructed for a non Contracting Power shall in no case exceed 27,000 tons (27,432 metric tons) standard displacement.

ARTICLE XVI

If the construction of any vessel of war for a non Contracting Power is undertaken within the jurisdiction of any of the Contracting Powers, such Power shall promptly inform the other Contracting Powers of the date of the signing of the contract and the date on which the keel of the ship is laid, and shall also communicate to them the particulars relating to the ship prescribed in Chapter II, Part 3, section 1 (b), (4) and (5)

ARTICLE XVIII

Each of the Contracting Powers undertakes not to dispose by gift, sale or any mode of transfer of any vessel of war in such a manner that such vessel may become a vessel of war in the navy of any foreign Power

CHAPTER II — PART 3 — SECTION 1

- (b) Each of the Contracting Powers shall communicate promptly to each of the other Contracting Powers the following information —

- (4) The standard displacement in tons and metric tons of each new ship to be laid down, and the principal dimensions, namely, length at waterline, extreme beam at or below waterline, mean draught at standard displacement
- (5) The date of completion of each new ship and its standard displacement in tons and metric tons, and the principal dimensions, namely, length at waterline, extreme beam at or below waterline, mean draught at standard displacement, at time of completion

PART 4 — DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of the present Treaty, the following expressions are to be understood in the sense defined in this Part

Capital Ship

A capital ship, in the case of ships hereafter built, is defined as a vessel of war, not an aircraft carrier, whose displacement exceeds 10,000 tons (10,160 metric tons) standard displacement, or which carries a gun with a calibre exceeding 8 inches (203 millimetres)

Aircraft Carrier.

An aircraft carrier is defined as a vessel of war with a displacement in excess of 10,000 tons (10,160 metric tons) standard displacement designed for the specific and exclusive purpose of carrying aircraft. It must be so constructed that aircraft can be launched therefrom and landed thereon, and not designed and constructed for carrying a more powerful armament than that allowed to it under Article IX or Article X, as the case may be Standard Displacement.

The standard displacement of a ship is the displacement of the ship complete, fully manned, engined, and equipped ready for sea, including all armament and ammunition, equipment, outfit, provisions and fresh water for crew, miscellaneous stores and implements of every description that are intended to be carried in war, but without fuel or reserve feed water on board

The word "ton" in the present Treaty, except in the expression "metric tons," shall be understood to mean the ton of 2,240 pounds (1,016 kilo)

Vessels now completed shall retain their present ratings of displacement tonnage in accordance with their national system of measurement. However, a Power expressing displacement in metric tons shall be considered for the application of the present Treaty as owning only the equivalent displacement in tons of 2,240 pounds

[5th March, 1923]

An Act to provide for the payment by certain classes of employers to their workmen of compensation for injury by accident.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the payment by certain classes of employers to their workmen of compensation for injury by accident. It is hereby enacted as follows —

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Workmen's Compensation Act 1923

Short title,
extent and

- (l) total disablement means such disablement whether of a temporary or permanent nature as incapacitates a workman for all work which he was capable of performing at the time of the accident resulting in such disablement provided that permanent total disablement shall be deemed to result from the permanent total loss of the sight of both eyes or from any combination of injuries specified in Schedule I where the aggregate percentage of the loss of earning capacity is specified in that Schedule against those injuries amounts to one hundred per cent
- (m) wages includes any privilege or benefit which is capable of being estimated in money other than a travelling allowance or the value of any travelling concession or a contribution paid by the employer of a workman towards any pension or provident fund or a sum paid to a workman to cover any special expenses entailed on him by the nature of his employment,

(n) "workman" means any person (other than a person whose employment is of a casual nature and who is employed otherwise than for the purposes of the employer's trade or business) who is—

(i) a railway servant as defined in section 3 of the Indian Railways Act, 1890, not permanently employed in any administrative, district or sub-divisional office of a railway and not employed in any such capacity as is specified in Schedule II, or

(ii) employed either by way of manual labour or on monthly wages not exceeding three hundred rupees, in any such capacity as is specified in Schedule II, whether the contract of employment was made before or after the passing of this Act and whether such contract is expressed or implied, oral or in writing, but does not include any person working in the capacity of a member of His Majesty's naval, military or air forces, ~~or of the Royal Indian Marine Service~~ and any reference to a workman who has been injured shall where the workman is dead, include a reference to his dependants or any of them

(2) The exercise and performance of the powers and duties of a local authority or of any department ~~of the Government~~ ^{acting on behalf of the Government} shall, for the purposes of this Act, unless a contrary intention appears, be deemed to be the trade or business of such authority or department

(3) The Governor General in Council, after giving, by notification in the Gazette of India, not less than three months' notice of his intention so to do, may, by a like notification, direct that the provisions of this Act shall apply ~~in the case of any person~~ ^{to any person} (other than a person whose employment is of a casual nature and who is employed otherwise than for the purposes of the employer's trade or business) who is employed by way of manual labour or on monthly wages not exceeding three hundred rupees in any occupation declared by such notification to be a hazardous occupation, or that the said provisions shall apply in the case of any specified class of such persons or in the case of any such person or class to whom any specified injury is caused, and any person in whose case the said provisions are so made applicable shall be deemed to be a workman within the meaning of this Act

(Chapter II—Workmen's Compensation)

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

3. (1) If personal injury is caused to a workman by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, his employer shall be liable to pay compensation in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter Employer's liability for compensation

Provided that the employer shall not be so liable—

(a) in respect of any injury which does not result in the total or partial disablement of the workman for a period exceeding ten days,

(b) in respect of any injury to a workman resulting from an accident which is directly attributable to—

(i) the workman having been at the time thereof under the influence of drink or drugs, or

(ii) the wilful disobedience of the workman to an order expressly given, or to a rule expressly framed, for the purpose of securing the safety of workmen, or

(iii) the wilful removal or disregard by the workman of any safety guard or other device which he knew to have been provided for the purpose of securing the safety of workmen, or

(c) except in the case of death or permanent total disablement, in respect of any workman employed in the construction, repair or demolition of a building or bridge

See Act No.
in page 246(c)

(2) If a workman employed in any employment involving the handling of wool, hair, bristles, ¹[or animal carcasses or parts of such carcasses or in the loading, unloading or transport of any merchandise, or in any work in connection with animals infected with anthrax], contracts the disease of anthrax, or if a workman, whilst in the service of an employer in whose service he has been employed for a continuous period of not less than six months in any employment specified in Schedule III, contracts any disease specified therein as an occupational disease peculiar to that employment the contracting of the disease shall be deemed to be an injury by accident within the meaning of this section and, unless the employer proves the contrary the accident shall be deemed to have arisen out of and in the course of the employment

¹ These words were substituted for the words "hides or skins" by s. 2 of the Workmen's Compensation (Amendment) Act 1926 (29 of 1926)

(Chapter II — Workmen's Compensation)

Explanation — For the purposes of this sub section a period of service shall be deemed to be continuous which has not included a period of service under any other employer

(3) The Governor General in Council, after giving, by notification in the Gazette of India not less than three months' notice of his intention so to do may by a like notification, add any description of employment to the employments specified in Schedule III, and shall specify in the case of the employments so added the diseases which shall be deemed for the purposes of this section to be occupational diseases peculiar to those employments respectively and the provisions of sub section (2) shall thereupon apply as if such diseases had been declared by this Act to be occupational diseases peculiar to those employments

(4) Save as provided by sub sections (2) and (3), no compensation shall be payable to a workman in respect of any disease unless the disease is solely and directly attributable to a specific injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment

(5) Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer any right to compensation on a workman in respect of any injury if he has instituted in a Civil Court a suit for damages in respect of the injury against the employer or any other person and no suit for damages shall be maintainable by a workman in any Court of law in respect of any injury—

(a) if he has instituted a claim to compensation in respect of the injury before a Commissioner, or

(b) if an agreement has been come to between the workman and his employer providing for the payment of compensation in respect of the injury in accordance with the provisions of this Act

4 (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the amount of compensation shall be as follows, namely —

A Where death results from the injury—

(i) in the case of an adult, a sum equal to thirty months' wages or two thousand five hundred rupees, whichever is less, and

(ii) in the case of a minor, two hundred rupees

B Where permanent total disablement results from the injury—

(i) in the case of an adult, a sum equal to forty two months' wages or three thousand five hundred rupees, whichever is less, and

¹ For additions of employment and occupational diseases see List of General Statutory Rules and Orders and Gazette of India 1926 Pt. I p 1067

(Chapter II — Workmen's Compensation)

- (u) in the case of a minor, a sum equal to eighty-four months' wages or three thousand five hundred rupees, whichever is less,

C Where permanent partial disablement results from the injury—

- (i) in the case of an injury specified in Schedule I, such percentage of the compensation which would have been payable in the case of permanent total disablement as is specified therein as being the percentage of the loss of earning capacity caused by that injury, and
- (u) in the case of an injury not specified in Schedule I, such percentage of the compensation payable in the case of permanent total disablement as is proportionate to the loss of earning capacity permanently caused by the injury

Explanation —Where more injuries than one are caused by the same accident, the amount of compensation payable under this head shall be aggregated but not so in any case as to exceed the amount which would have been payable if permanent total disablement had resulted from the injuries

D Where temporary disablement whether total or partial results from the injury a half monthly payment payable on the sixteenth day after the expiry of a waiting period of ten days from the date of the disablement and thereafter half monthly during the disablement or during a period of five years whichever period is shorter,—

- (i) in the case of an adult of fifteen rupees or a sum equal to one fourth of his monthly wages whichever is less, and
- (u) in the case of a minor of a sum equal to one third or after he has attained the age of fifteen years to one half of his monthly wages but not exceeding in any case fifteen rupees

Provided that there shall be deducted from any lump sum or half monthly payments to which the workman is entitled the amount of any payment or allowance which the workman has received from the employer by way of compensation during the period of disablement prior to the receipt of such lump sum or of the first half monthly payment, as the case may be, and no half-monthly payment shall in any case exceed the amount, if any, by which half the amount of the monthly wages of the workman before the accident exceeds half the amount of such wages which he is earning after the accident

(2) On the ceasing of the disablement before the date on which any half monthly payment falls due, there shall be payable in respect of that half-month a sum proportionate to the duration of the disablement in that half-month

5 For the purposes of Section 1 the monthly wages of a workman shall be calculated as follows, namely —

(a) where the workman has, during a continuous period of not less than twelve months immediately preceding the accident, been in the service of the employer who is liable to pay compensation, the monthly wages of the workman shall be one twelfth of the total wages which have fallen due for payment to him by the employer in the last twelve months of that period.

(b) in other cases the monthly wages shall be thirty times the total wages earned in respect of the last continuous period of service immediately preceding the accident from the employer who is liable to pay compensation, divided by the number of days comprising such period

Provided that the sum arrived at by a calculation under clause (a) or clause (b) shall be increased or decreased, as the case may be, to the amount specified in the second column of Schedule IV against the head specified in the first column thereof within the limits of which such sum is included

Explanation — A period of service shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be continuous which has not been interrupted by a period of absence from work exceeding fourteen days

6. (1) Any half monthly payment payable under this Act, either under an agreement between the parties or under the order of a Commissioner, may be reviewed by the Commissioner on the application either of the employer or of the workman accompanied by the certificate of a qualified medical practitioner that there has been a change in the condition of the workman or, subject to rules made under this Act, on application made without such certificate

Review.

(Chapter II — Workmen's Compensation)

(2) Any half-monthly payment may, on review under this section, subject to the provisions of this Act, be continued, increased, decreased or ended, or, if the accident is found to have resulted in permanent disablement, be converted to the lump sum to which the workman is entitled less any amount which he has already received by way of half-monthly payments.

7. Any right to receive half monthly payments may, by agreement between the parties or, if the parties cannot agree and the payments have been continued for not less than six months, on the application of either party to the Commissioner, be redeemed by the payment of a lump sum of such amount as may be agreed to by the parties or determined by the Commissioner, as the case may be

tion of half-
payments.

8. (1) Compensation payable in respect of a workman whose injury has resulted in death shall be deposited with the Commissioner, and any sum so deposited shall be apportioned among the dependants of the deceased workman or any of them in such proportion as the Commissioner thinks fit, or may, in the discretion of the Commissioner, be allotted to any one such dependant, and the sum so allotted to any dependant shall be paid to him or, if he is a person under any legal disability, he invested, applied or otherwise dealt with for his benefit during such disability in such manner as the Commissioner thinks fit.

tion of compensation.

Act V of 1927

b 246(c)

(2) Any other compensation payable under this Act may be deposited with the Commissioner and, when so deposited, shall be paid by the Commissioner to the person entitled thereto.

(3) The receipt of the Commissioner shall be a sufficient discharge in respect of any amount deposited with him under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2).

(4) On the deposit of any money under sub-section (1) the Commissioner may deduct therefrom the actual cost of the workman's funeral expenses, to an amount not exceeding fifty rupees, and pay the same to the person by whom such expenses were incurred, and shall, if he thinks necessary, cause notice to be published or to be served on each dependant in such manner as he thinks fit, calling upon the dependants to appear before him on such date as he may fix for determining the distribution of the compensation. If the Commissioner is satisfied, after any inquiry which he may deem necessary, that no dependant exists, he shall repay the balance of the money to the employer by whom it was paid. The Commissioner shall, on application by the employer, furnish a statement showing in detail all disbursements made.

as compensation in respect
workman

(Sec. 246(c))

(Chapter II — Workmen's Compensation)

(5) ~~Where a half-monthly payment is payable under this Act to a person under any legal disability, the Commissioner may, of his own motion or on application made to him in this behalf, order that this half-monthly payment be paid during the disability to any dependant of the workman or to any other person whom he thinks best fitted to provide for the welfare of the workman~~

(6) ~~Where, on application made to him in this behalf or otherwise, the Commissioner is satisfied that, on account of neglect of children on the part of a parent or on account of the variation of the circumstances of any dependant or for any other sufficient cause, an order of the Commissioner as to the distribution of any sum paid as compensation or as to this manner in which any sum payable to any such dependant is to be invested, applied or otherwise dealt with, ought to be varied, the Commissioner may make such orders for the variation of the former order as he thinks just in the circumstances of this case~~

Provided that no such order prejudicial to any person shall be made unless such person has been given an opportunity of showing cause why the order should not be made, or shall be made in any case in which it would involve the repayment by a dependant of any sum already paid to him

(9) ~~Save as provided by this Act, no lump sum or half-monthly payment payable under this Act shall in any way be capable of being assigned or charged or be liable to attachment or pass to any person other than the workman by operation of law, nor shall any claim be set off against the same~~

10 (1) No proceedings for the recovery of compensation shall be maintainable before a Commissioner unless notice of the accident has been given, in the manner hereinafter provided, as soon as practicable after the happening thereof and before the workman has voluntarily left the employment in which he was injured, and unless the claim for compensation with respect to such accident has been instituted within six months of the occurrence of the accident or, in case of death, within six months from the date of death

Provided that, where the accident is the contracting of a disease in respect of which the provisions of sub section (2) of section 3 are applicable, the accident shall be deemed to have occurred on the first of the days during which the workman was continuously absent from work in consequence of the disablement caused by the disease

Compensation not to be assigned, attached or charged

(Chapter II — Workmen's Compensation)

Provided, further, that the Commissioner may admit and decide any claim to compensation in any case notwithstanding that the notice has not been given, or the claim has not been instituted, in due time as provided in this sub section, if he is satisfied that the failure so to give the notice or institute the claim, as the case may be, was due to sufficient cause.

(2) Every such notice shall give the name and address of the person injured and shall state in ordinary language the cause of the injury and the date on which the accident happened, and shall be served on the employer or upon ¹[any one of] several employers, or upon any person directly responsible to the employer for the management of any branch of the trade or business in which the injured workman was employed

(3) The notice may be served by delivering the same at, or sending it by registered post addressed to, the residence or any office or place of business of the person on whom it is to be served

11 (1) Where a workman has given notice of an accident, he shall, if the employer, before the expiry of three days from the time at which service of the notice has been effected, offers to have him examined free of charge by a qualified medical practitioner, submit himself for such examination, and any workman who is in receipt of a half monthly payment under this Act shall, if so required, submit himself for such examination from time to time Medical examination

Provided that a workman shall not be required to submit himself for examination by a medical practitioner otherwise than in accordance with rules made under this Act, or at more frequent intervals than may be prescribed

(2) If a workman, on being required to do so by the employer under sub section (1) or by the Commissioner at any time, refuses to submit himself for examination by a qualified medical practitioner or in any way obstructs the same, his right to compensation shall be suspended during the continuance of such refusal or obstruction unless, in the case of refusal, he was prevented by any sufficient cause from so submitting himself

(3) If a workman, before the expiry of the period within which he is liable under sub section (1) to be required to submit himself for medical examination, voluntarily leaves without having been so examined the vicinity of the place in which he was employed, his right to compensation shall be suspended until he returns and offers himself for submission

¹ These words were substituted for the words "any one or the Repealing and Amending Act, 1924 (7 of 1924)"

(Chapter II — Workmen's Compensation)

(4) Where a workman, whose right to compensation has been suspended under sub section (2) or sub section (3), dies without having submitted himself for medical examination as required by either of those sub sections, the Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, direct the payment of compensation to the dependants of the deceased workman

(5) Where under sub section (2) or sub section (3) a right to compensation is suspended, no compensation shall be payable in respect of the period of suspension, and, if the period of suspension commences before the expiry of the waiting period referred to in clause D of sub-section (1) of section 4, the waiting period shall be increased by the period during which the suspension continues

(6) Where an injured workman has refused to be attended by a qualified medical practitioner whose services have been offered to him by the employer free of charge or having accepted such offer has deliberately disregarded the instructions of such medical practitioner, then, if it is thereafter proved that the workman has not been regularly attended by a qualified medical practitioner and that such refusal, failure or disregard was unreasonable in the circumstances of the case and that the injury has been aggravated thereby the injury and resulting disablement shall be deemed to be of the same nature and duration as they might reasonably have been expected to be if the workman had been regularly attended by a qualified medical practitioner, and compensation, if any, shall be payable accordingly.

Contracting

12 (1) Where any person (hereinafter in this section referred to as the principal) in the course of or for the purposes of his trade or business contracts with any other person (hereinafter in this section referred to as the contractor) for the execution by or under the contractor of the whole or any part of any work which is ordinarily part of the trade or business of the principal, the principal shall be liable to pay to any workman employed in the execution of the work any compensation which he would have been liable to pay if that workman had been immediately employed by him, and where compensation is claimed from the principal, this Act shall apply as if references to the principal were substituted for references to the employer except that the amount of compensation shall be calculated with reference to the wages of the workman under the employer by whom he is immediately employed

(2) Where the principal is liable to pay compensation under this section, he shall be entitled to be indemnified by the contractor, and all questions as to the right to and the amount of any such indemnity shall in default of agreement, be settled by the Commissioner

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a workman from recovering compensation from the contractor instead of the principal

(4) This section shall not apply in any case where the accident occurred elsewhere than on, in or about the premises on which the principal has undertaken or usually undertakes, as the case may be, to execute the work or which are otherwise under his control or management

13. Where a workman has recovered compensation in respect of any injury caused under circumstances creating a legal liability of some person other than the person by whom the compensation was paid to pay damages in respect thereof, the person by whom the compensation was paid and any person who has been called on to pay an indemnity under section 12 shall be entitled to be indemnified by the person so liable to pay damages as aforesaid Remedies of employer against stranger

14. (1) Where any employer has entered into a contract with any insurers in respect of any liability under this Act to any workman, then in the event of the employer becoming insolvent or making a composition or scheme of arrangement with his creditors or, if the employer is a company, in the event of the company having commenced to be wound up, the rights of the employer against the insurers as respects that liability shall, notwithstanding anything in any law for the time being in force relating to insolvency or the winding up of companies, be transferred to and vest in the workman, and upon any such transfer the insurers shall have the same rights and remedies and be subject to the same liabilities as if they were the employer, so however, that the insurers shall not be under any greater liability to the workman than they would have been under to the employer Insolvency of employer

(2) If the liability of the insurers to the workman is less than the liability of the employer to the workman, the workman may prove for the balance in the insolvency proceedings or liquidation

(3) Where in any case such as is referred to in sub section (1) the contract of the employer with the insurers is void or voidable by reason of non compliance on the part of the employer with any terms or conditions of the contract (other than a stipulation for the payment of premia), the provisions of that sub section shall apply as if the contract were not

void or voidable, and the insurers shall be entitled to prove in the insolvency proceedings or liquidation for the amount paid to the workman

Provided that the provisions of this sub section shall not apply in any case in which the workman fails to give notice to the insurers of the happening of the accident and of any resulting disablement as soon as practicable after he becomes aware of the institution of the insolvency or liquidation proceedings

(4) There shall be deemed to be included among the debts which under section 49 of the Presidency towns Insolvency Act, 1909, or under III of section 61 of the Provincial Insolvency Act 1920 or under section 230 V of the Indian Companies Act 1913, are in the distribution of the pro VII of perty of an insolvent or in the distribution of the assets of a company being wound up to be paid in priority to all other debts, the amount due in respect of any compensation the liability wherefor accrued before the date of the order of adjudication of the insolvent or the date of the commencement of the winding up, as the case may be, and those Acts shall have effect accordingly

(5) Where the compensation is a half monthly payment, the amount due in respect thereof shall, for the purposes of this section, be taken to be the amount of the lump sum for which the half monthly payment could, if redeemable, be redeemed if application were made for that purpose under section 7, and a certificate of the Commissioner as to the amount of such sum shall be conclusive proof thereof

(6) The provisions of sub section (4) shall apply in the case of any amount for which an insurer is entitled to prove under sub section (3), but otherwise those provisions shall not apply where the insolvent or the company being wound up has entered into such a contract with insurers as is referred to in sub section (1)

(7) This section shall not apply where a company is wound up voluntarily merely for the purposes of reconstruction or of amalgamation with another company

15 This Act shall apply in the case of workmen who are masters of registered ships or seamen subject to the following modifications, namely —

(1) The notice of the accident and the claim for compensation may, except where the person injured is the master of the ship, be served on the master of the ship as if he were the employer, but where the accident happened and the disablement commenced on board the ship, it shall not be necessary for any seaman to give any notice of the accident

(Chapter II — Workmen's Compensation)

(2) In the case of the death of a master or seaman the claim for compensation shall be made within six months after the news of the death has been received by the claimant or where the ship has been or is deemed to have been lost with all hands within eighteen months of the date on which the ship was or is deemed to have been so lost

(d) Where an injured master or seaman is discharged or left behind in any part of His Majesty's dominions or in a foreign country any depositions taken by any Judge or Magistrate in that part or by any Consular Officer in the foreign country and transmitted by the person by whom they are taken to the Governor General in Council or any Local Government shall in any proceedings for enforcing the claim be admissible in evidence—

(a) if the deposition is authenticated by the signature of the Judge Magistrate or Consular Officer before whom it is made

(b) if the defendant or the person accused as the case may be had an opportunity by himself or his agent to cross examine the witness and

(c) if the deposition was made in the course of a criminal proceeding on proof that the deposition was made in the presence of the person accused and it shall not be necessary in any case to prove the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed any such deposition and a certificate by such person that the defendant or the person accused had an opportunity of cross examining the witness and that the deposition if made in a criminal proceeding was made in the presence of the person accused shall unless the contrary is proved be sufficient evidence that he had that opportunity and that it was so made

(f) In the case of the death of a master or seaman leaving no dependants the Commissioner shall if the owner of the ship is under any law in force for the time being in British India relating to merchant shipping liable to pay the expenses of burial of the master or seaman return to the employer the full amount of the compensation deposited under sub section (1) of section 8 without making the deduction referred to in sub section (4) of that section

(5) No ¹[half monthly payment] shall be payable in respect of the period during which the owner of the ship is under any law in force for the time being in British India relating to merchant shipping, liable to defray the expenses of maintenance of the injured master or seaman

tion

16. The Governor General in Council may, by notification¹ in the Gazette of India, direct that every person employing workmen, or that any specified class of such persons, shall send at such time and in such form and to such authority, as may be specified in the notification, a correct return specifying the number of injuries in respect of which compensation has been paid by the employer during the previous year and the amount of such compensation, together with such other particulars as to the compensation as the Governor General in Council may direct

out

17. Any contract or agreement whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, whereby a workman relinquishes any right of compensation from the employer for personal injury arising out of or in the course of the employment, shall be null and void in so far as it purports to remove or reduce the liability of any person to pay compensation under this Act

Proof of age

18. Where any question arises as to the age of a person injured by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment in a factory, a certificate granted in respect of such person under section 7 or section 8 of the Indian Factories Act, 1911, before the occurrence of the injury^x shall be conclusive proof of the age of such person

(Part II—Masters and Seamen)

30. (1) The following provisions shall have effect with respect to the agreements with the crew made in British India in the case of foreign going ships registered either within or without British India, namely :—

Special provisions with regard to agreements with crew of foreign going ships

- (a) The agreement shall, subject to the provisions of this Act as to substitutes, be signed by each seaman in the presence of a shipping-master
- (b) The shipping master shall cause the agreement to be read over and explained to each seaman, in a language understood by him, or shall otherwise ascertain that each seaman understands the same before he signs it, and shall attest each signature
- (c) When the crew is first engaged the agreement shall be signed in duplicate, and one part shall be retained by the shipping-master, and the other part shall be delivered to the master, and shall contain a special place or form for the descriptions and signatures of substitutes or persons engaged subsequently to the first departure of the ship
- (d) When a substitute is engaged in the place of a seaman who has duly signed the agreement and whose services are lost within twenty-four hours of the ship's putting to sea by death, desertion or other unforeseen cause, the engagement shall, if practicable be made before a shipping-master, and if not practicable the master shall, before the ship puts to sea if practicable, and, if not, as soon afterwards as possible, cause the agreement to be read over and explained to the substitute and the substitute shall thereupon sign the same in the presence of a witness who shall attest the signature
- (e) The agreement may be made for a voyage of the ship or, if the voyages of the ship average less than six months in duration may be made to extend over two or more voyages, and agreements so made are in this Act referred to as running agreements
- (f) Save as otherwise provided in this section, running agreements shall not extend beyond the next following thirtieth day of June or thirty first day of December, or the first arrival of the ship at her port of destination in British India after such date, or the discharge of cargo consequent upon that arrival.

(g) On every return to a port in British India before the final termination of a running agreement, the master shall discharge or engage before the shipping-master at such port any seaman whom he is required by law so to discharge or engage, and shall upon every such return endorse on the agreement a statement (as the case may be) either that no such discharges or engagements have been made or are intended to be made before the ship leaves port, or that all those made have been made as required by law, and if the master wilfully makes a false statement in any such endorsement he shall for each offence be liable to a fine which may extend to two hundred rupees

(h) The master shall deliver the running agreement so endorsed to the shipping-master, and the shipping master shall, if the provisions of this Act relating to agreements have been complied with sign the endorsement and return the agreement to the master

(2) In the case of a ship—

(a) registered in British India, or

(b) registered in the United Kingdom but not employed in trading with any port in the United Kingdom, a running agreement may be made to extend over two or more voyages so that it shall terminate either within six months from the date on which it was executed or on the first arrival of the ship at her port of destination in British India after the expiration of that period, or on the discharge of cargo consequent upon such arrival, whichever of these dates shall be the latest

Provided that no such agreement shall continue in force if, after the expiration of such period of six months as aforesaid, the ship proceeds on a voyage from a port out of British India to any other such port which is not on the direct road or a customary route to her port of destination in British India

Provided, also, that every such agreement shall, in addition to any other particulars required by law, contain such stipulations for the discharge of the crew and payment of their wages, for securing their return to the port at which they were shipped or to some other port in

British India, and for other purposes on the termination of the agreement at a port out of British India under the foregoing proviso, as the Governor General in Council may direct

31. (1) When a running agreement has been made with the crew of a foreign going ship and the ship arrives after the next following thirtieth day of June or thirty first day of December, as the case may be, or after the expiration of a period of six months from the date on which it was executed at a port of destination in British India which is not the port at which the crew have agreed to be discharged the master may, with the previous sanction of the shipping-master, renew the agreement with the crew, or may be required by the shipping-master so to renew the agreement for the voyage from such port of destination to the port in British India at which the crew have agreed to be discharged

Renewal of running agreements in certain cases

(2) If the master of the ship is required by the shipping master to renew the agreement as aforesaid and refuses so to renew it, any expenses which may be incurred by Government for the subsistence of the crew and their conveyance to the port at which they have agreed to be discharged shall be a charge upon the ship, and shall be recoverable as if they were expenses incurred in respect of distressed seamen under the provisions of this Act

32. The following provisions shall have effect with respect to the agreements with the crew of home trade ships for which an agreement with the crew is required under this Act namely —

Special provisions as to agreements with crew of home trade ship over three hundred tons burden.

(a) Agreements may be made either for service in a particular ship or for service in two or more ships belonging to the same owner, but, in the latter case, the names of the ships and the nature of the ships and the nature of the service shall be specified in the agreement

(b) Crews or single seamen may if the master thinks fit, be engaged before a shipping master in the same manner as they are required to be engaged for service in foreign going ships, but if the engagement is not so made, the master shall, before the ship puts to sea if practicable and, if not, as soon afterwards as possible cause the agreement to be read over and explained to each seaman and the seaman shall thereupon sign the same in the presence of a witness, and the witness shall attest the signature

- (c) An agreement for service in two or more ships belonging to the same owner may be made by the owner instead of by the master, and the provisions of this Act with respect to the making of the agreement shall apply accordingly
- (d) Agreements shall not extend beyond the next following thirtieth day of June or thirty-first day of December or the first arrival of the ship at her final port of destination in British India after each date, or the discharge of cargo consequent on that arrival

Provided that the owner or his agent may enter into time agreements in forms sanctioned by the Governor General in Council with individual seamen to serve in any one or more ships belonging to such owner, which agreements need not expire on either the thirtieth day of June or the thirty-first day of December

33 (1) The master of every foreign going ship, of which the crew has been engaged before a shipping master, shall, before finally leaving British India, sign and send to the nearest shipping master a full and accurate statement in a form sanctioned by the Governor General in Council, of every change which takes place in his crew before finally leaving British India, and that statement shall be admissible in evidence

(2) If any master fails without reasonable cause to comply with the requirements of this section, he shall be liable for each offence to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees

34 (1) In the case of a foreign going ship on the due execution of an agreement with the crew in accordance with this Act, and also, when the agreement is a running agreement, on compliance by the master, before the second and every subsequent voyage made after the first commencement of the agreement, with the provisions of this Act respecting that agreement, the shipping master shall grant the master of the ship a certificate to that effect

(2) The master of every foreign going ship shall, before proceeding to sea, produce that certificate to the Customs-collector, or, if there is no Customs collector, to the officer whose duty it is to grant a port-clearance

(3) No officer of Customs or other officer shall clear any such ship outwards without such production, and, if any such ship attempts to go to sea without a clearance any such officer may detain her until such certificate as aforesaid is produced

(4) The master of every foreign going ship shall, within forty eight hours after the ship's arrival at her final port of destination in British India, or upon the discharge of the crew, whichever first happens, deliver such agreement to a shipping master at the place, and such shipping master shall thereupon give to the master a certificate of such delivery and no officer of Customs or other officer shall clear any foreign going ship inwards without the production of such certificate

(5) Any master who fails without reasonable cause so to deliver the agreement with the crew, shall be liable for each offence to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees

35. (1) The master or owner of a home trade ship of more than three hundred tons burden shall within twenty one days after the thirtieth day of June and the thirty first day of December in every year or (if the ship is not at any port in British India within twenty-one days after either the thirtieth day of June or the thirty first day of December) within forty eight hours of her next arrival at a port in British India, deliver or transmit to a shipping master in British India every agreement made within the six months next preceding such days respectively

Certificate as to agreement with crew of home trade ship

(2) The shipping master on receiving such agreement shall give the master or owner of the ship a certificate to that effect and no officer of Customs or other officer authorised to grant a port clearance shall grant a clearance for any such ship without a production of the certificate and if any such ship attempts to go to sea without such clearance, any such officer may detain her until the certificate is produced

(3) Any master or owner who fails without reasonable cause, to comply with this section shall be liable for each offence to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees

36 (1) The master shall at the commencement of every voyage or engagement cause a legible copy of the agreement and, if necessary a translation thereof in a language understood by the majority of the crew (omitting the signatures) to be placed or posted up in such part of the ship as to be accessible to the crew

Copy of agreement to be made accessible to the crew

(2) Any master who fails without reasonable cause to comply with this section shall be liable for each offence to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees

Alteration in agreement

37. Every erasure, interlineation or alteration in any agreement with the crew (except additions made for the purpose of shipping substitutes or persons engaged subsequently to the first departure of the ship) shall be wholly inoperative, unless proved to have been made with the consent of all the persons interested in such erasure, interlineation or alteration by the written attestation (if made in His Majesty's dominions) of some shipping master, Justice, officer of Customs, or other public functionary, or (if made out of His Majesty's dominions) of a British consular officer, or, where there is no such officer, of two respectable British merchants.

Advance and Allotment of Wages

52. (1) Any agreement with the crew may contain a stipulation for payment to a seaman, conditional on his going to sea in pursuance of the agreement, of a sum not exceeding the amount of one month's wages payable to the seaman under the agreement

and allotments

(2) Stipulations for the allotment of a seaman's wages may be made in accordance with this Act

(3) Save as aforesaid an agreement by or on behalf of the employer of a seaman for the payment of money to or on behalf of the seaman conditional on his going to sea from any port in British India shall be void, and no money paid in satisfaction or in respect of any such agreement shall be deducted from the seaman's wages, and a person shall not have any right of action, suit or set off against the seamen or his assignee in respect of any money so paid or purporting to have been so paid

53. (1) Any stipulation made by a seaman at the commencement of a voyage for the allotment of any part of his wages during his absence shall be inserted in the agreement with the crew, and shall state the amounts and times of the payments to be made

as to allotment notes.

(2) A seaman may require that a stipulation be inserted in the agreement for the allotment, by means of an allotment note, of any part (not exceeding one third) of his wages in favour either of a relative of the seaman or some member of his family to be named in the note

(3) Allotment notes shall be in a form sanctioned by the ^{Local} Government Council

54. (1) The owner or any agent who has authorised the drawing of an allotment note shall pay to the shipping master on demand the sums due under the note, and if he fails to do so the shipping-master may sue for and recover the same with costs

allotted

Provided that no such sum shall be recoverable if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Court or Magistrate trying the case that the seaman has forfeited or ceased to be entitled to the wages out of which the allotment was to have been paid, but the seaman shall be presumed to be duly earning his wages unless the contrary is shown to the satisfaction of the Court or Magistrate either by the official statement of the change in the crew caused by his absence made and signed by the master as by this Act is required, or by a certified copy of some entry in the official log-book to the effect that he has died or left the ship, or by a credible letter from the master of the ship to the same effect, or by such other evidence, of whatever description, as the Court or Magistrate may consider sufficient.

(2) The shipping master on receiving any such sum as aforesaid shall pay it over to the person named in that behalf in the allotment note

(3) All such receipts and payments shall be entered in a book to be kept for the purpose, and all entries in the said book shall be authenticated by the signature of the shipping master or the deputy shipping-master

(4) The said book shall be at all reasonable times open to the inspection of the parties concerned

Rights of Seamen in respect of Wages

55. A seaman's right to wages and provisions shall be taken to begin either at the time at which he commences work or at the time specified in the agreement for his commencement of work or presence on board whichever first happens

56 (1) A seaman shall not by any agreement forfeit his lien on the ship or be deprived of any remedy for the recovery of his wages to which in the absence of the agreement he would be entitled and shall not by any agreement abandon his right to wages in case of the loss of the ship or abandon any right that he may have or obtain in the nature of salvage, and every stipulation in any agreement inconsistent with any provisions of this Act shall be void

(2) Nothing in this section shall apply to a stipulation made by the seamen belonging to any ship which according to the terms of the agreement is to be employed on salvage service with respect to the remuneration to be paid to them for salvage service to be rendered by that ship to any other ship

57. (1) The right to wages shall not depend on the earning of freight and every seaman and apprentice who would be entitled to demand and recover any wages if the ship in which he has served had earned freight,

wages and salvage not to be forfeited

to depend on freight

shall, subject to all other rules of law and conditions applicable to the case, be entitled to demand and recover the same notwithstanding that freight has not been earned, but in all cases of wreck or loss of the ship, proof that the seaman has not exerted himself to the utmost to save the ship cargo and stores shall bar his claim to wages

8. After section 58 of the said Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely — 28 1931

new section 58A

“ 58A (1) Where the service of a lascar or native seaman employed on a ship registered in British India or engaged in British India for employment on a foreign ship terminates before the date contemplated in the agreement by reason of the wreck or loss of the ship, the lascar shall, notwithstanding anything contained in section 58, but subject to the provisions of this section, be entitled to receive—

Special provision for ship wrecked

(a) wages at the rate to which he was entitled at the date of the termination of service, until he is sent home or to a port near his home in accordance with section 75, or until he has been sent home or to a proper port of return in accordance with the Merchant Shipping Acts, or has in any other way reached his port of departure from India or a port near his home, as the case may be, and

(b) compensation for the loss of his effects up to one month's wages at the said rate

(2) A lascar shall not be entitled to receive wages under clause (a) of sub section (1) in respect of any period during which—

(a) he was or could have been suitably employed, or

(b) he

(b) he negligently failed to apply to the proper authority for relief as a distressed or destitute lascar ”

he may have earned, due compensation for the damage caused to him by the discharge not exceeding one month's wages and may recover that compensation as if it were wages duly earned

(Part II —Masters and Seamen)

77 (1) The master of every British ship shall receive and afford a passage and subsistence to all distressed seamen whom he is required to take on board his ship under the provisions of section 75 not exceeding one for every fifty tons burden and shall, during the passage provide every such seaman with a proper berth or sleeping place effectually protected against sea and weather

Master of British ship compelled to convey and give subsistence to such seamen

(2) If the master of any such ship fails or refuses to receive on board his ship or to give a passage or subsistence to or to provide for any such seaman contrary to the provisions of sub section (1) he shall for each such seaman with respect to whom he so fails or refuses be liable to a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees

78 (1) When the master of a British ship has conveyed a distressed seaman in excess of the number (if any) wanted to make up the complement of his crew to any place in accordance with the requisition of a local authority under this Act such master shall be entitled to be paid by the Secretary of State for India in Council in respect of the subsistence and passage of such distressed seaman such sum per diem as the Governor General in Council may fix

Conditions under which master may claim payment

Provided that no such payment shall be made except on the production of the following documents (that is to say) —

- (a) a certificate signed by the local authority by whose direction such distressed seaman was received on board specifying the name of such seaman and the time when he was received on board and
- (b) a declaration in writing by such master made and verified in manner hereinafter provided and stating—
 - (i) the number of days during which such distressed seaman received subsistence and was provided for as aforesaid on board his ship
 - (ii) the number of men and boys forming the complement of his crew
 - (iii) the number of seamen and apprentices employed on board his ship during the time such distressed seaman was on board and
 - (iv) every variation (if any) of such number

(2) The declaration required by this section shall in the case of a ship conveying Indian subjects of His Majesty to a port in British India be made before a shipping master or such other officer as the local Government may appoint In other cases such declaration shall be made and verified in the same manner as declarations made under section 48^{6 Edw 7 c 48} of the ¹Merchant Shipping Act, 1906

Wages and expenses incurred in respect of distressed seamen to be charged on ship to which they belong in certain cases
 Mode of recovering such wages and expenses

79. Where any expenses are incurred by a local authority under this Part on account of a distressed seaman either for his subsistence, necessary clothing, conveyance home, and, in case he should die before reaching home, for his burial, those expenses (together with the wages, if any, due to the seaman) shall be a charge upon the ship, whether British or foreign, to which he belonged

80. All such expenses and wages shall be recoverable with costs either from the master of such ship or from the person who is owner thereof for the time being, or, in the case of an engagement for service in a foreign ship, from such master or owner, or from the person by whom such engagement was so made, in the same manner as other debts due to the Secretary of State for India in Council, or in the same manner and by the same form and process in which wages due to the distressed seaman would be recoverable by him

Local Government may authorise persons to recover same

81. (1) The ~~Local Government~~ ^{Local Council} may, by notification in the ~~Local Official~~ ^{of India} Gazette, authorise, either generally or specially, such persons as ~~the~~ thinks fit to sue for any such expenses and wages and recover the same

(2) Every person so authorised shall be entitled to sue and recover accordingly, and shall be deemed to be a person filling a public office within the meaning of clause (7) of section 37 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872

Board of Trade may recover such amount from master or owner in certain cases

82 When any such expenses and wages are due to or in respect of a distressed seaman (not being an Indian subject of His Majesty) belonging to a British ship registered in British India, they may, instead of being recovered by a person authorised under section 81, be recovered by the Board of Trade in manner provided by section 42 of the ¹Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, and when so recovered shall be paid by the said Board to the Secretary of State for India in Council

6 Edw 7, c 48

What shall be evidence of distress and expenses incurred

83 In all proceedings under this Part, whether in British India or elsewhere the production of a certificate signed by the local authority by which any distressed seaman named therein was relieved, or any expenses were incurred under this Part, to the effect that such seaman was in distress and that such expenses were incurred in respect of such seaman, shall be sufficient evidence that such seaman was relieved,

reduced (except in accordance with any regulations for reduction by way of punishment contained in the agreement with the crew, and also except for any time during which the seaman wilfully and without sufficient cause refuses or neglects to perform his duty or is lawfully under confinement for misconduct either on board or on shore), or

(ii) if it is shown that any of those provisions are or have during the voyage been bad in quality or unfit for use, the seaman shall receive by way of compensation for that reduction or bad quality according to the time of its continuance the following sums to be paid to him in addition to and to be recoverable as wages —

(a) if his allowance is reduced by not more than one third of the quantity specified in the agreement, a sum not exceeding three annas in the case of a European seaman or other person shipped on the same footing as a European seaman, or one anna in the case of a lascar or native seaman,

(b) if his allowance is reduced by more than one third of such quantity, six annas in the case of a European seaman or other person shipped on the same footing as a European seaman, or two annas in the case of a lascar or native seaman,

(c) in respect of such bad quality as aforesaid, a sum not exceeding eight annas in the case of a European seaman or other person shipped on the same footing as a European seaman, or three annas in the case of a lascar or native seaman

(2) If it is shown to the satisfaction of the Court before which the case is tried that any provisions, the allowance of which has been reduced, could not be procured or supplied in proper quantities, and that proper and equivalent substitutes were supplied in lieu thereof, the Court shall take those circumstances into consideration and modify or refuse the compensation as the justice of the case requires

87. (1) All foreign going British ships and all home trade ships of more than three hundred tons burden shall have always on board a sufficient supply of medicines and appliances suitable for diseases and accidents likely to happen on sea voyages according to such scale as is from time to time issued by the ~~Local Government~~ ^{L. Govt. Council} with the approval of the ~~Governor-General in Council~~ and published in the local official Gazette of India.

(2) If any requirement in this section with respect to the provision of medicines and appliances is not complied with in the case of any ship,

Medicines to be provided and kept on board certain ships

the owner or master of that ship shall for each offence be liable to a fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, unless he can prove that the non-compliance was not caused by his inattention, neglect or wilful default

(3) This section shall not apply to ships navigating between the United Kingdom and any port in British India and to which section 200 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894, applies

88. The master of a ship shall keep on board proper weights and measures for determining the quantities of the several provisions and articles served out and shall allow the same to be used at the time of serving out the provisions and articles in the presence of witnesses whenever any dispute arises about the quantities. If the master of a ship fails without reasonable cause to comply with this section, he shall for each offence be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees

Weights and measures on board

89. (1) If the master of, or a seaman or apprentice belonging to, a ship registered in British India receives any hurt or injury in the service of the ship, the expense of providing the necessary surgical and medical advice and attendance and medicine, and also the expenses of the maintenance of the master seaman or apprentice until he is cured or dies or is brought back to the port from which he was shipped or other port agreed upon and of his conveyance to that port and in case of death, the expense, if any, of his burial, shall be defrayed by the owner of the ship without any deduction on that account from his wages

Expenses of medical attendance in case of illness

(2) Where any expenses referred to in this section have been paid by the master, seaman, or apprentice himself, the same may be recovered as if they were wages duly earned, and, if any such expenses are paid or allowed out of any money forming part of the revenues of India the amount shall be a charge upon the ship and may be recovered with full costs of suit by the Secretary of State for India in Council

90. (1) Every place in a British ship which is occupied by seamen or apprentices engaged under this Act and appropriated for their use shall have—

Accommodation for seamen

(a) for each European seaman or apprentice or other person shipped on the same footing as a European seaman, a space of ten superficial feet if the place be not less than six feet in height from deck to deck, or sixty cubic feet if the height from deck to deck be less than six feet,

(Part II —Masters and Seamen)

(b) for each lascar or native seaman or person shipped on the same footing as a lascar, six superficial and thirty six cubic feet and, if the place allotted be under the top gallant fore-castle, such fore-castle deck shall be not less than four feet six inches above the one below it

(2) In every case the place shall be below a well caulked and substantial deck, securely constructed, properly ventilated and properly protected from weather and sea

(3) If any of the foregoing requirements of this section is not complied with in the case of any ship, the owner of the ship shall for each offence be liable to a fine which may extend to two hundred rupees

(4) Every place so occupied and appropriated shall be kept free from goods and stores of any kind not being the personal property of the crew in use during the voyage

(5) If any such place is not so kept free, the master shall for each offence be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees

Inspection of medicines and appliances and accommodation.

91 (1) The shipping master or deputy shipping master at any port in British India may enter at any time on board any ship upon which seamen have been shipped at that port and inspect the medicines and appliances and the accommodation for seamen with which the ship is required to be provided by or under this Act or the Merchant Shipping Acts

(2) If, on inspection, the provisions or water on board any ship are found to be of bad quality and unfit for use or deficient in quantity, the shipping master shall proceed as provided in section 85, and the fine prescribed by the said section shall be incurred by any default of the master of the ship in respect of such provisions or water and the ship shall be detained until the defects are remedied to the satisfaction of the shipping master

Facilities for making Complaints

Facilities for making complaints.

92 (1) If a seaman or apprentice, whilst on board ship, states to the master that he desires to make complaint to a Magistrate against the master or any of the crew, the master shall, so soon as the service of the ship will permit,

(a) if the ship is then at a place where there is a Magistrate, after such statement, and

(b) if the ship is not then at such place after her first arrival at such a place,

allow the complainant to go ashore or send him ashore in proper custody so that he may be enabled to make the complaint.

(2) If the master of a ship fails without reasonable cause to comply with the provisions of this section, he shall for each such offence be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees

Protection of Seamen from Imposition

93. Subject to the provisions of this Act, an assignment or sale of salvage payable to a seaman or apprentice made prior to the accruing thereof shall not bind the person making the same, and a power of attorney or authority for the receipt of any such salvage shall not be irrevocable

Assignment or sale of salvage invalid.

94. A debt exceeding in amount three rupees incurred by any seaman after he has engaged to serve shall not be recoverable until the service agreed for is concluded

No debt exceeding three rupees recoverable till end of voyage

95. If a person demands or receives from a seaman or apprentice payment in respect of his board or lodging in the house of that person for a longer period than the seaman or apprentice has actually resided or boarded therein, that person shall for each offence be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees

Penalty for over-charges by lodging-house keepers.

96. (1) If a person receives or takes into his possession or under his control any money or effects of a seaman or apprentice and does not return the same or pay the value thereof when required by the seaman or apprentice subject to such deduction as may be justly due to him from the seamen or apprentice in respect of board or lodging or otherwise or absconds therewith, he shall for each offence be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees

Penalty for detaining seamen's effects.

(2) Any Magistrate imposing a fine under this section may direct the amount of such money or the value of the effects subject to such deduction as aforesaid, if any, or the effects themselves to be forthwith paid or delivered to the seaman or apprentice

97. If within twenty-four hours after the arrival of a ship at a port in British India a person then being on board the ship solicits a seaman to become a lodger at the house of any person letting lodgings for hire, or takes out of the ship any effects of a seaman except under the personal direction of the seaman and with the permission of the master, he shall for each offence be liable to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

98. Where a ship is about to arrive or is arriving or has arrived at the end of the voyage and any person not being in His Majesty's service or not being duly authorised by law for the purpose goes on board the ship without the permission of the master before the seamen lawfully leave the ship at the end of their engagement or are discharged (which ever happens last), that person shall for each offence be liable to a fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, and the master of the ship may take him into custody and deliver him up forthwith to a police officer to be taken before a Magistrate to be dealt with according to the provisions of this Act

Provisions as to Discipline

Misconduct endangering life or ship

99. If a master, seaman or apprentice belonging to a British ship by wilful breach of duty or by neglect of duty or by reason of drunkenness—

(a) does any act tending to the immediate loss, destruction or serious damage of the ship or tending immediately to endanger the life or limb of a person belonging to or on board the ship, or

(b) refuses or omits to do any lawful act proper and requisite to be done by him for preserving the ship from immediate loss, destruction or serious damage or for preserving any person belonging to or on board the ship from immediate danger to life or limb, he shall be liable for every such offence to a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or to imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or to both

100. If a seaman lawfully engaged or an apprentice commits any of the following offences he shall, notwithstanding anything in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, be liable to be tried in a summary manner and to be punished as follows —

(i) if he deserts from his ship, he shall be guilty of the offence of desertion and be liable to forfeit all or any part of the effects he leaves on board and of the wages which he has then earned and also, if the desertion takes place at any place not in British India, to forfeit all or any part of the wages which he may earn in any other ship in which he may be employed until his next return to British India, and to satisfy any excess of wages paid by the master or owner of the ship

from which he deserts to any substitute engaged in his place at a higher rate of wages than the rate stipulated to be paid to him, and also be shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to twelve weeks;

- (ii) if he neglects or refuses without reasonable cause to join his ship or to proceed to sea in his ship or is absent without leave at any time within twenty-four hours of the ship's sailing from a port either at the commencement or during the progress of a voyage, or is absent at any time without leave and without sufficient reason from his ship or from his duty, he shall, if the offence does not amount to desertion or is not treated as such by the master, be guilty of the offence of absence without leave and be liable to forfeit out of his wages a sum not exceeding two days' pay and in addition for every twenty-four hours of absence either a sum not exceeding six days' pay, or any expenses properly incurred in hiring a substitute, and also he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to ten weeks

101. (1) If a seaman or apprentice is guilty of the offence of desertion or of absence without leave or otherwise absents himself from his ship without leave, the master, any mate, the owner, ship's husband or consignee of the ship may, with or without the assistance of police officers, convey him on board his ship, and those officers are hereby directed to give assistance if required

Conveyance of deserter or imprisoned seaman on board ship

(2) If the seaman or apprentice so requires, he shall first be taken before some Court capable of taking cognizance of the matter to be dealt with according to law

(3) If it appears to the Court before whom the case is brought that the seaman or apprentice has been conveyed on board or taken before the Court on improper or insufficient grounds that Court may inflict on the master, mate, owner, ship's husband or consignee, as the case may be, a fine which may extend to two hundred rupees

(4) The infliction of such fine shall be a bar to any action for false imprisonment in respect of the arrest

(5) If a seaman or apprentice is imprisoned for having been guilty of the offence of desertion or of absence without leave, or for having committed any other breach of discipline and during his imprisonment and before his engagement is at an end his services are required on board

his ship, any Magistrate may, on the application of the master or of the owner or his agent, notwithstanding that the period of his imprisonment is not at an end, cause the seaman or apprentice to be conveyed on board his ship for the purpose of proceeding on the voyage, or to be delivered to the master or any mate of the ship, or to the owner or his agent, to be by them so conveyed.

102. Where a seaman or apprentice is brought before a Court on the ground of the offence of desertion or of absence without leave or of otherwise absenting himself without leave, the Court, if the master or the owner, or his agent, so requires, may, in lieu of committing him to prison, cause him to be conveyed on board his ship for the purpose of proceeding on the voyage, or deliver him to the master or any mate of the ship or the owner or his agent, to be by them so conveyed, and may in such case order any costs and expenses properly incurred by or on behalf of the master or owner by reason of the conveyance to be paid by the offender and, if necessary, to be deducted from any wages which he has then earned or by virtue of his then existing engagement may afterwards be earned.

103. If a seaman lawfully engaged or an apprentice commits any of the following offences (in this Act referred to as offences against discipline), he shall, notwithstanding anything in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, be liable to be tried in a summary way and to be punished as follows, namely —

- (i) if he quits the ship without leave after her arrival at her port of delivery and before she is placed in security, he shall be liable to forfeit out of his wages a sum not exceeding one month's pay,
- (ii) if he is guilty of wilful disobedience to any lawful command, he shall be liable to imprisonment for a period which may extend to four weeks and shall also be liable to forfeit out of his wages a sum not exceeding two days' pay,
- (iii) if he is guilty of continued wilful disobedience to lawful commands or continued wilful neglect of duty, he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to twelve weeks, and shall also be liable for every twenty-four hours' continuance of such disobedience or neglect for a sum not exceeding six days' pay or any expenses which may have been properly incurred in hiring a substitute,

107. (1) In every case of desertion from a ship registered in British India whilst such ship is at any place out of British India, the master shall produce the entry of the desertion in the official log book to the person authorised by the ¹Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, to grant certificates for leaving seamen behind abroad, and that person shall thereupon make and certify a copy of the entry

(2) The master shall forthwith transfer such copy to the shipping master at the port at which the seaman or apprentice was shipped, and the shipping master shall, if required, cause the same to be produced in any legal proceeding

(3) Such copy, if purporting to be so made and certified as aforesaid shall, in any legal proceeding relating to such desertion, be admissible in evidence

(Part II —Masters and Seamen)

108. (1) Whenever a question arises whether the wages of any seaman or apprentice are forfeited for desertion from a ship, it shall be sufficient for the person insisting on the forfeiture to show that the seaman or apprentice was duly engaged in or belonged to the ship, and either that he left the ship before the completion of the voyage or engagement or if the voyage was to terminate in British India and the ship has not returned, that he is absent from her and that an entry of his desertion has been duly made in the official log-book

Facilities for proving desertion in proceeding for forfeiture of wages.

(2) The desertion shall thereupon, so far as relates to any forfeiture of wages under this Part, be deemed to be proved unless the seaman or apprentice can produce a proper certificate of discharge or can otherwise show to the satisfaction of the Court that he had sufficient reasons for leaving his ship

109. (1) Where any wages or effects are under this Act forfeited for desertion from a ship, they shall be applied towards re-imbursing the expenses caused by the desertion to the master or the owner of the ship and, subject to that reimbursement, shall be paid into the public treasury and carried to the account of Government

Application of forfeitures

(2) For the purposes of such reimbursement the master or the owner or his agent may, if the wages are earned subsequent to the desertion, recover them in the same manner as the deserter could have recovered them if not forfeited, and the Court in any legal proceeding relating to such wages may order them to be paid accordingly

(3) Where wages are forfeited under the foregoing provisions of this Act in any case other than for desertion, the forfeiture shall, in the absence of any specific provision to the contrary, be for the benefit of the master or owner by whom the wages are payable

110. Any question concerning the forfeiture of or deductions from the wages of a seaman or apprentice may be determined in any proceeding lawfully instituted with respect to those wages notwithstanding that the offence in respect of which the question arises, though by this Act made punishable by imprisonment as well as forfeiture has not been made the subject of any criminal proceeding

Decision of questions of forfeiture and deduction in suits for wages

111. (1) If a seaman contracts for wages by the voyage or by the run or by the share and not by the month or other stated period of time, the amount of forfeiture to be incurred under this Act shall be an amount bearing the same proportion to the whole wages or share as a

106. (1) Whenever any seaman or apprentice not shipped in British India deserts or otherwise absents himself in British India without leave from a British ship in which he is engaged to serve, the master of the ship shall within forty-eight hours of discovering such desertion or absence, report the same to the shipping-master or to such other officer as the ^{To be by Council} Local Government appoints in this behalf, unless in the meantime, the deserter or absentee returns

(2) Any master wilfully neglecting to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, or to both.

Entries and certificates
abroad

107. (1) In every case of desertion from a ship registered in British India whilst such ship is at any place out of British India, the master shall produce the entry of the desertion in the official log-book to the person authorised by the ^{Edm.} Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, to grant certificates for leaving seamen behind abroad, and that person shall there-^{o. 48.} upon make and certify a copy of the entry

(2) The master shall forthwith transfer such copy to the shipping-master at the port at which the seaman or apprentice was shipped, and the shipping master shall, if required, cause the same to be produced in any legal proceeding

(3) Such copy, if purporting to be so made and certified as aforesaid shall, in any legal proceeding relating to such desertion, be admissible in evidence

(Part II —Masters and Seamen)

108. (1) Whenever a question arises whether the wages of any sea man or apprentice are forfeited for desertion from a ship, it shall be sufficient for the person insisting on the forfeiture to show that the seaman or apprentice was duly engaged in or belonged to the ship, and either that he left the ship before the completion of the voyage or engagement or if the voyage was to terminate in British India and the ship has not returned that he is absent from her and that an entry of his desertion has been duly made in the official log-book

(2) The desertion shall thereupon, so far as relates to any forfeiture of wages under this Part, be deemed to be proved unless the seaman or apprentice can produce a proper certificate of discharge or can otherwise show to the satisfaction of the Court that he had sufficient reasons for leaving his ship

109. (1) Where any wages or effects are under this Act forfeited for desertion from a ship, they shall be applied towards reimbursing the expenses caused by the desertion to the master or the owner of the ship and, subject to that reimbursement, shall be paid into the public treasury and carried to the account of Government

(2) For the purposes of such re-imbursement the master or the owner or his agent may, if the wages are earned subsequent to the desertion, recover them in the same manner as the deserter could have recovered them if not forfeited, and the Court in any legal proceeding relating to such wages may order them to be paid accordingly

(3) Where wages are forfeited under the foregoing provisions of this Act in any case other than for desertion, the forfeiture shall, in the absence of any specific provision to the contrary, be for the benefit of the master or owner by whom the wages are payable

110. Any question concerning the forfeiture of or deductions from the wages of a seaman or apprentice may be determined in any proceeding lawfully instituted with respect to those wages notwithstanding that the offence in respect of which the question arises, though by this Act made punishable by imprisonment as well as forfeiture, has not been made the subject of any criminal proceeding

111. (1) If a seaman contracts for wages by the voyage or by the run or by the share and not by the month or other stated period of time, the amount of forfeiture to be incurred under this Act shall be an amount bearing the same proportion to the whole wages or share as a month or any other period hereinbefore mentioned in fixing the amount of forfeiture (as the case may be) bears to the whole time spent in the voyage or run

(2) If the whole time spent in the voyage or run does not exceed the period for which the pay is to be forfeited, the forfeiture shall extend to the whole wages or share

fines imposed under agreement to shipping

112 (1) Every fine imposed on a seaman for any act of misconduct for which his agreement imposes a fine shall be deducted and paid over as follows, namely —

(i) if the offender is discharged at any port or place in British India, and the offence and such entries in respect thereof as aforesaid are proved, in the case of a foreign going ship to the satisfaction of the shipping master before whom the offender is discharged, and in the case of a home trade ship to the satisfaction of the shipping master at or nearest to the place at which the crew is discharged, the master or owner shall deduct such fine from the wages of the offender and pay the same over to such shipping master and

(ii) if before the final discharge of the crew in British India any such offender as aforesaid enters into any of His Majesty's ships or is discharged at any place not in British India, and the offence and such entries as aforesaid are proved to the satisfaction of the officer in command of the ship into which he so enters or of the consular officer or officer of Customs, or other person by whose sanction he is so discharged, the fine shall thereupon be deducted as aforesaid, and an entry of such deduction shall then be made in the official log book (if any) and signed by such officer or other person, and on the return of the ship to British India, the master or owner shall pay over such fine in the case of foreign going ships to the shipping master before whom the crew is discharged and in the case of home trade ships to the shipping master at or nearest to the place at which the crew is discharged

(2) If any master or owner neglects or refuses so to pay over the fine, he shall for each such offence incur a penalty not exceeding six times the amount of the fine retained by him

(Part II — Masters and Seamen)

(3) An act of misconduct for which any such fine has been inflicted and paid shall not be otherwise punished under the provisions of this Act

113. If a person by any means whatever persuades or attempts to persuade a seaman or apprentice to neglect or refuse to join or proceed to sea in or desert from his ship or otherwise to absent himself from his duty he shall for each offence in respect of each seaman or apprentice be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees

Penalty for enticing to desert

114. If a person wilfully harbours or secretes a seaman or apprentice who has wilfully neglected or refused to join or has deserted from his ship knowing or having reason to believe the seaman or apprentice to have so done, he shall for every seaman or apprentice so harboured or secreted be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees

Penalty for harbouring deserters

115. (1) If a person secretes himself and goes to sea in a ship without the consent of either the owner, consignee or master or of a mate or of the person in charge of the ship or of any other person entitled to give that consent he shall be liable to a fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or to imprisonment for a term which may extend to four weeks

Penalty on stowaways and discipline of stowaways and seamen carried under compulsion

(2) Every sea faring person whom the master of a ship is under the authority of this Act or any other law compelled to take on board and convey, and every person who goes to sea in a ship without such consent as aforesaid shall so long as he remains in the ship be subject to the same laws and regulations for preserving discipline and to the same fines and punishments for offences constituting or tending to a breach of discipline as if he were a member of and had signed the agreement with the crew

116. (1) If any seaman or apprentice who is not shipped in British India is imprisoned on complaint made by or on behalf of the master or owner of the ship or for any offence for which he has been sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month then—

Procedure where sea man or apprentice not shipped in British India is imprisoned on complaint of master or owner

(a) while such imprisonment lasts no person shall, without the previous sanction in writing of the ^{S. 4, in Council} Local Government or of such officer as ^{he} may appoint in this behalf engage any native of India to serve as a seaman on board such ship, and

(b) the ^{S. 4, in Council} Local Government or such officer as ^{he} may appoint in this behalf may tender such seaman or apprentice to the master or owner of the ship in which he is engaged to serve, and if such master or owner, without assigning reasons satisfactory to the ^{Local Government} ~~Local Government~~ or to such officer as aforesaid, refuses to receive him on board, may require such master or owner to deposit in the local shipping office—

- (i) the wages due to such seaman or apprentice and his money and effects: and
- (ii) such sum as may, in the opinion of the Local Government or such officer as aforesaid, be sufficient to defray the cost of the passage of such seaman or apprentice to the port at which he was shipped according to the scale of costs usual in the case of distressed seamen

(2) If any person wilfully disobeys the prohibition contained in clause (a) of sub-section (1), he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or to a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or to both

(3) Any master or owner refusing or neglecting to deposit any wages, money, effects or sum when so required by this section, shall be liable to a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees

117. If any seaman or apprentice who is not shipped in British India is imprisoned for any offence for which he has been sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month, and if during such imprisonment and before his engagement is at an end his services are required on board his ship, any Magistrate may, at the request of the master or owner or his agent, cause the seaman or apprentice to be conveyed on board the ship for the purpose of proceeding on the voyage or to be delivered to the master or any mate of the ship or to the owner or his agent to be by them so conveyed, notwithstanding that the period for which he was sentenced to imprisonment has not terminated

118. (1) If during the progress of a voyage the master of any ship registered in British India is removed or superseded or for any other reason quits the ship and is succeeded in the command by some other person, he shall deliver to his successor the various documents relating to the navigation of the ship and the crew thereof which are in his custody, and shall in default be liable to a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees

(2) Such successor shall immediately on assuming the command of the ship enter in the official log book a list of the documents so delivered to him.

Power to send on board seaman or apprentice not shipped in British India who is under going imprisonment

On change of master, documents to be handed over to successor

Leaving Seamen or Apprentices in British India

119. (1) No seaman or apprentice who was not shipped in British India shall be discharged at any port in British India without the previous sanction in writing of such officer as the ^{Local Government} ~~Local Government~~ appoints in this behalf. Such sanction shall be given or withheld at the discretion of the officer so appointed but whenever it is withheld, the reasons for so withholding it shall be recorded by him in writing.

Discharge or leaving behind in British India of seamen or apprentice not shipped in British India

(2) If any person discharges a seaman or apprentice in wilful disobedience to the prohibition contained in sub section (1), he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or to a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or to both.

Official Logs

120. (1) An official log shall be kept in every ship registered in British India except home trade ships not exceeding three hundred tons burden in the form sanctioned by the ^{Local Government} ~~Local Government~~.

Official logs to be kept and to be dated

(2) The official log may, at the discretion of the master or owner, be kept distinct from or united with the ordinary ship's log so that in all cases the spaces in the official log book be duly filled up.

(3) An entry required by this Act in the official log book shall be made as soon as possible after the occurrence to which it relates, and, if not made on the same day as that occurrence, shall be made and dated so as to show the date of the occurrence and of the entry respecting it, and if made in respect of an occurrence happening before the arrival of the ship at her final port of discharge, shall not be made more than twenty four hours after that arrival.

(4) Every entry in the official log book shall be signed by the master and by the mate or some other of the crew and also—

(a) if it is an entry of injury or death, shall be signed by the surgeon or medical practitioner on board, if any, and

(b) if it is an entry of wages due to or of the sale of the effects of a seaman or apprentice who dies, shall be signed by the mate and by some member of the crew besides the master, and

(c) if it is an entry of wages due to a seaman who enters His Majesty's naval service, shall be signed by the seaman or by the officer authorised to receive the seaman into that service.

(Part II—Masters and Seamen)

(5) Every entry made in an official log book in the manner provided by this Act shall be admissible in evidence

121 The master of a ship for which an official log is required shall enter or cause to be entered in the official log book the following matters, namely—

Entries required in official log book

- (i) every conviction by a legal tribunal of a member of his crew, and the punishment inflicted
- (ii) every offence committed by a member of his crew for which it is intended to prosecute or to enforce a forfeiture or exact a fine together with such statement concerning the reading over of that entry, and concerning the reply (if any) made to the charge as is by this Act required,
- (iii) every offence for which punishment is inflicted on board and the punishment inflicted,
- (iv) a statement of the conduct, character, and qualifications of each of his crew, or a statement that he declines to give an opinion on those particulars,
- (v) every case of illness or injury happening to a member of the crew with the nature thereof, and the medical treatment adopted (if any),
- (vi) every case of death happening on board and the cause thereof,
- (vii) every birth happening on board with the sex of the infant and the names of the parents,
- (viii) every marriage taking place on board with the names and ages of the parties,
- (ix) the name of every seaman or apprentice who ceases to be a member of the crew otherwise than by death, with the place, time, manner and cause thereof
- (x) the wages due to any seaman who enters His Majesty's naval service during the voyage,
- (xi) the wages due to any seaman or apprentice who dies during the voyage and the gross amount of all deductions to be made therefrom,
- (xii) the sale of the effects of any seaman or apprentice who dies during the voyage, including a statement of each article sold and of the sum received for it,

(Part II —Masters and Seamen)

(AND every collision with any other ship and the circumstances under which the same occurred

122. (1) If an official log book is not kept in the manner required by this Act or if an entry directed by this Act to be made therein is not made at the time and in the manner directed by this Act, the master shall if no other penalty is provided by this Act be liable for each offence to a fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Offences in respect of official logs.

(2) If any person makes or procures to be made or assists in making any entry in any official log book in respect of any occurrence happening previously to the arrival of the ship at her final port of discharge more than twenty-four hours after such arrival, he shall for each offence be liable to a fine which may extend to three hundred rupees

(3) If any person wilfully destroys or mutilates or renders illegible any entry in any official log book or wilfully makes or procures to be made or assists in making a false or fraudulent entry in or omission from an official log book he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year

Delivery of official logs to shipping-masters

(2) The master or owner of every home trade ship for which an official log is required to be kept shall, within twenty one days of the thirtieth day of June and the thirty first day of December in every year, transmit or deliver to some shipping master in British India the official log book for the preceding half year

(3) If the master or owner of a ship fails without reasonable cause to comply with this section he shall be liable to a fine which may extend to two hundred rupees

124 (1) Where by reason of transfer of ownership or change of employment of a ship the official log ceases to be required in respect of the ship or to be required on the same date the master or owner of the ship shall if the ship is then in British India within one month and if she is elsewhere within six months after the cessation deliver or transmit to the shipping master at the port to which the ship belonged the official log book, if any, duly made out at the time of the cessation

Official logs to be sent to shipping master in case of transfer of ship and in case of loss

(Part II—Masters and Seamen Part III—Passenger Ships)

(2) If a ship is lost or abandoned, the master or owner thereof shall, if practicable, and as soon as possible, deliver or transmit to the shipping-master at the port to which the ship belonged the official log book, if any, duly made out to the time of the loss or abandonment

(3) If the master or owner of the ship fails without reasonable cause to comply with the provisions of this section he shall for each offence be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees

PASSING SHIPS

Survey of Passenger Ship

125 (1) No steam ship shall carry more than twelve passengers between places in British India or to or from any place in British India from or to any place out of British India, unless she has a certificate of survey under this Part in force and applicable to the voyage on which she is about to proceed or the service on which she is about to be employed

(2) Nothing in sub section (1) shall apply to—

- (a) any steam ship having a certificate of survey granted by the Board of Trade or by the Government of any part of His Majesty's dominions where such certificate has been declared under section 284 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894, to be of the same force as if granted under that Act, unless it appears from the certificate that it is inapplicable to the voyage on which the steam ship is about to proceed or the service on which she is about to be employed or unless there is reason to believe that the steam ship has since the grant of the certificate sustained injury or damage or been found unseaworthy or otherwise inefficient or
- (b) any steam ship having a certificate of survey granted under the Inland Steam Vessels Act 1917 in force and applicable to the voyage on which the steam ship is about to proceed or the service on which she is about to be employed or
- (c) any steam ship carrying passengers during the interval between the time at which her certificate of survey under this Part expires and the time at which it is first practicable to have the certificate renewed

No steam ship to carry passengers without a certificate of survey

138 A certificate of survey granted under this Part shall not be in force—

- (a) after the expiration of one year from the date thereof, or
- (b) after the expiration of the period if less than one year for which the hull boilers engines or any of the equipments have been stated in the certificate to be sufficient or
- (c) after notice has been given by the Local Government to the owner or master of the steam ship to which the certificate relates that the ^{S.G. in Council} ~~Local Government~~ has cancelled or suspended it

or suspension
of certificate of survey by Local Gov ernment

139 Any certificate of survey granted under this Part may be cancelled or suspended by a ^{S.G. in Council} ~~Local Government~~ if it has reason to believe—

- (a) that the declaration by the surveyor of the sufficiency and good condition of the hull boilers engines or any of the equipments of the steam ship has been fraudulently or erroneously made, or
- (b) that the certificate has otherwise been issued upon false or erroneous information or
- (c) that since the making of the declaration the hull, boilers, engines or any of the equipments of the steam ship have sustained any injury or have otherwise become insufficient

(Part III—Passenger Ships)

140 (1) The ~~Local Government~~ ^{S. 2 by Council} may require any certificate of survey granted under this Part which has expired, or has been cancelled or suspended, to be delivered up to such person as ^{he} directs.

Power to require delivery of expired or cancelled certificate of survey

(2) If the owner or master of a steam ship without reasonable cause neglects or refuses to deliver up a certificate when required to do so under this section he shall be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees

141. If the Local Government which cancels or suspends a certificate of survey granted under this Part is not the Local Government which or whose delegate granted the certificate, ~~the Local Government cancelling or suspending the certificate shall report the fact of cancellation or suspension together with the reasons thereof to the Local Government which or whose delegate granted the certificate~~

amended act V L 152

142 (1) The owner or master of every steam ship for which a certificate of survey has been granted under this Part shall forthwith on the receipt of the certificate cause one of the duplicates thereof to be affixed, and kept affixed so long as the certificate remains in force and the steam ship is in use on some conspicuous part of the steam ship where it may be easily read by all persons on board thereof

Certificate of survey to be affixed in conspicuous part of steam ship

(2) If the certificate is not so kept affixed the owner and master of the steam ship shall each be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees

143 If a steam ship on its voyage carries or attempts to carry passengers in contravention of section 125 or has on board or in any part thereof a number of passengers which is greater than the number set forth in the certificate of survey as the number of passengers which the steam ship or the part thereof is fit to carry on that voyage the owner and the master shall each be punishable with a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees and also with an additional fine not exceeding twenty rupees for every passenger above the number so set forth or if the fare of any passenger on board exceeds twenty rupees not exceeding double the amount of the fares of all the passengers above the number so set forth reckoned at the highest rate of fare payable by any passenger on board and if the master or any other officer of any steam ship which carries or attempts to carry passengers in contravention of section 125 is a licensed pilot he shall be liable to have his licence as a pilot suspended or cancelled for any period by the ^{S. 2 by Council} ~~Local Government~~

Penalty for carrying passengers in contravention of the Act

(Part III —Passenger Ships)

144 (1) When a steam ship requires to be furnished with a certificate of survey under this Part and the ^{Local Government} ~~Local Government~~ is satisfied, by the production of a certificate of survey attested by a British Consular Officer at the port where the survey was made, that the ship has been officially surveyed at a foreign port, and that the requirements of this Act are proved by that survey to have been substantially complied with, the ^{Local Government} ~~Local Government~~ may, if ^{he} ~~it~~ thinks fit dispense with any further survey of the ship in respect of the requirements so complied with, and give a certificate which shall have the same effect as a certificate given after survey under this Part.

Provided that this sub-section shall not apply in the case of a foreign steam ship to an official survey at any foreign port with respect to which His Majesty has by Order in Council directed that section 363 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1891 shall not apply.

(2) When the Local Government has by notification in the local official Gazette declared that it is satisfied that an official survey at any foreign port specified in the declaration is such as to prove that the requirements of this Act have been substantially complied with, any person appointed by the Local Government in this behalf may exercise the power to dispense with a survey and to give a certificate conferred on the Local Government by sub-section (1) in the case of any steamship furnished with a valid certificate of survey granted at such foreign port and duly attested by the British Consular Officer at that port.

(3) The procedure prescribed in sub-section (1) shall be applicable in the case of steam ships furnished with valid certificates of partial survey, including docking certificates granted by the Board of Trade or any British Colonial Government as if they were steam ships furnished with valid certificates of survey granted at foreign ports, subject to the modification that the powers of the Local Government under the said sub-section may be exercised by any person appointed by the Local Government in this behalf.

145 (1) The Local Government may subject to the condition of previous publication and the sanction of the Governor General in Council make rules to regulate the making of surveys under this Part.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules may—

(a) declare the times and places at which, and the manner in which surveys are to be made

157 The person by whom certificate A and certificate B are to be granted shall be the officer appointed under section 151 who is herein after referred to as the certifying officer.

Substitute for certificate A.

158 Where the master of a ship produces to the certifying officer one of the certificates of survey referred to in sections 136 and 144 in respect of the ship in force and applicable to the voyage on which the ship is to proceed or the service on which she is about to be employed, the certifying officer may if the particulars required by section 154 are certified thereby take the certificate as evidence of those particulars, and it shall then be deemed to be a certificate A for the purposes of this Part.

159 (1) After receiving the notice required by section 141 the certifying officer may if he thinks fit, cause the ship to be surveyed at the expense of the master or owner by competent surveyors who shall report to him whether the ship is in their opinion seaworthy and properly equipped fitted and ventilated for the service on which she is to be employed.

Provided that he shall not cause a ship holding one of the certificates of survey referred to in Part III to be surveyed unless, by reason of the ship having met with damage or having undergone alterations, or on other reasonable ground he considers it likely that she may be found unseaworthy or not properly equipped fitted or ventilated for the service on which she is to be employed.

(2) If the officer causes a survey to be made of a ship holding any such certificate and the surveyors report that the ship is seaworthy and properly equipped fitted and ventilated for the voyage, and that there was no reasonable ground why the officer should have thought it likely that she would be found unseaworthy, or not properly equipped, fitted or ventilated for the service on which she is to be employed, the expense of the survey shall be paid by the ~~Local Government~~ Local Government.

(Part II — Native Passenger Ships and Pilgrim Ships)

160 (1) The certifying officer shall not grant a certificate unless he is satisfied that the ship has not on board any cargo likely from its quality, quantity or mode of stowage to prejudice the health or safety of the native passengers or pilgrims Discretion as to grant of certificate

(2) Since as afore said and subject to the provisions of sub section (3), it shall be in the discretion of the certifying officer to grant or withhold the certificate

(3) In the exercise of that discretion that officer shall be subject to the control of the ^{Local Government} ~~Local Government~~ and of any intermediate authority which ^{the Local Government} ~~the Government~~ appoints in this behalf

161 The master or owner shall post up in a conspicuous part of the ship, so as to be visible to persons on board thereof, a copy of each of the certificates granted under this Part in respect of the ship and shall keep those copies so posted up throughout the voyage Copy of certificates to be exhibited

162 (1) If a native passenger or pilgrim ship departs or proceeds on a voyage from or discharges native passengers or pilgrims at any port or place within British India in contravention of the provisions of this Part or if a person is received as a native passenger or pilgrim on board any such ship in contravention of the provisions of this Part, the master or owner shall for every native passenger or pilgrim carried in the ship, or for every native passenger or pilgrim so discharged or received on board be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees or to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or to both Penalty for ship unlawfully departing or receiving passengers on board

(Part IV—Native Passenger Ships and Pilgrim Ships)

(i) such other particulars, if any, as may be prescribed for native passenger or pilgrim ships as the case may be.

Supply by passengers of their own food

156 If an officer appointed in this behalf by the ^{Local Government} ~~Local Government~~ is satisfied that a native passenger or pilgrim has brought on board a native passenger or pilgrim ship for his own use food of the quality and in the quantity prescribed, the requirements of this Part, respecting the supply of food for passengers or pilgrims, shall not apply so far as regards the supply of food for that passenger or pilgrim.

157. The person by whom certificate A and certificate B are to be granted shall be the officer appointed under section 151 who is herein after referred to as the certifying officer.

Substitute
cate A.

158 Where the master of a ship produces to the certifying officer one of the certificates of survey referred to in sections 136 and 144 in respect of the ship in force and applicable to the voyage on which the ship is to proceed or the service on which she is about to be employed, the certifying officer may, if the particulars required by section 154 are certified thereby take the certificate as evidence of those particulars, and it shall then be deemed to be a certificate A for the purposes of this Part.

159. (1) After receiving the notice required by section 151 the certifying officer may if he thinks fit, cause the ship to be surveyed at the expense of the master or owner by competent surveyors, who shall report to him whether the ship is in their opinion, seaworthy and properly equipped fitted and ventilated for the service on which she is to be employed.

Provided that he shall not cause a ship holding one of the certificates of survey referred to in Part III to be surveyed unless, by reason of the ship having met with damage or having undergone alterations, or on other reasonable ground he considers it likely that she may be found unseaworthy or not properly equipped, fitted or ventilated for the service on which she is to be employed.

(2) If the officer causes a survey to be made of a ship holding any such certificate and the surveyors report that the ship is seaworthy and properly equipped, fitted and ventilated for the voyage, and that there was no reasonable ground why the officer should have thought it likely that she would be found unseaworthy, or not properly equipped, fitted or ventilated for the service on which she is to be employed, the expense of the survey shall be paid by the ~~Local~~ Government.

(Part II —Native Passenger Ships and Pilgrim Ships)

160 (1) The certifying officer shall not grant a certificate unless he is satisfied that the ship has not on board any cargo likely from its quality, quantity or mode of stowage to prejudice the health or safety of the native passengers or pilgrims Discretion as to grant of certificate

(2) Save as aforesaid and subject to the provisions of sub section (3), it shall be in the discretion of the certifying officer to grant or withhold the certificate

(3) In the exercise of that discretion that officer shall be subject to the control of the ^{Govt. or Council} ~~local Government~~, and of any intermediate authority which that ^{Govt. or Council} ~~Government~~ appoints in this behalf

161 The master or owner shall post up in a conspicuous part of the ship, so as to be visible to persons on board thereof, a copy of each of the certificates granted under this Part in respect of the ship and shall keep those copies so posted up throughout the voyage Copy of certificates to be exhibited

162 (1) If a native passenger or pilgrim ship departs or proceeds on a voyage from or discharges native passengers or pilgrims at any port or place within British India in contravention of the provisions of this Part or if a person is received as a native passenger or pilgrim on board any such ship in contravention of the provisions of this Part, the master or owner shall, for every native passenger or pilgrim carried in the ship, or for every native passenger or pilgrim so discharged or received on board be liable to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees or to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or to both Penalty for ship unlawfully departing or receiving passengers on board

fraudulent alteration in ship after
obtained

165 If the master of a native passenger or pilgrim ship after having obtained any of the certificates mentioned in this Part fraudulently does or suffers to be done anything whereby the certificate becomes inapplicable to the altered state of the ship, her native passengers or pilgrims as the case may be, or other matters to which the certificate relates, he shall be liable to a fine which may extend to two thousand rupees or to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or to both.

Penalty for
supply native passengers or pilgrims with prescribed provisions

166 If the master of a native passenger or pilgrim ship without reasonable excuse the burden of proving which shall lie upon him, omits to supply to any passenger or pilgrim the prescribed allowance of food, fuel and water as required by the provisions of this Part, he shall be liable to a fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every native passenger or pilgrim who has sustained detriment by the omission.

Penalty for having excessive number of

167 (1) If a native passenger or pilgrim ship has on board a number of native passengers or pilgrims which is greater than the number allowed for the ship by or under this Part, the master and owner shall, for every such passenger or pilgrim over and above that number, be each liable to a fine which may extend to twenty rupees and the master shall further be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one week in respect of each such passenger or pilgrim.

Provided that the aggregate term of imprisonment awarded under this section shall not exceed six months.

(2) Any officer authorised in this behalf by the ^{S. G. in Council} Local Government may cause all native passengers or pilgrims over and above the number allowed by or under this Part to disembark and may forward them to any port at which they may have contracted to land and recover the cost of so forwarding them from the master or owner of the ship as if the cost were a fine imposed under this Part, and a certificate under the hand of that officer shall be conclusive proof of the amount of the cost aforesaid.

(Part II —Native Passenger Ships and Pilgrim Ships)

168. If the master of a native passenger or pilgrim ship lands any native passenger or pilgrim at any port or place other than the port or place at which the native passenger or pilgrim may have contracted to land unless with his previous consent or unless the landing is made necessary by perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, the master shall for every such offence be liable to a fine which may extend to two hundred rupees or to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or to both

Penalty for landing native passenger or pilgrim at a place other than that at which he has contracted to land

169. If a native passenger or pilgrim ship, otherwise than by reason of perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, touches at any port or place in contravention of any express or implied contract or engagement with the native passengers or pilgrims with respect to the voyage which the ship was to make and the time which that voyage was to occupy, whether the contract or engagement was made by public advertisement or otherwise, the master and owner shall each be liable to a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or to imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or to both

Penalty for making voyage in contravention of contract

(Part II —Native Passenger Ships and Pilgrim Ships)

British India shall before advertising such ship for the conveyance of pilgrims or offering to convey any pilgrim by such ship or selling or permitting any person to sell a passage ticket to any pilgrim for conveyance by such ship supply to the prescribed officer (hereinafter referred to is the Pilgrim Officer) at the port or place from which the ship is to commence the voyage and at each port or place in British India at which it is to touch for the purpose of embarking pilgrims full particulars as to the class, tonnage and age of the ship, the maximum number of passage tickets of each class to be issued, the maximum price of each class of ticket, the date on which the ship is to sail from that port or place, the ports, if any, at which it is to touch, the place of its destination, and the probable date of its arrival thereat.

(2) The master, owner or agent shall supply to the Pilgrim Officer, within three days from the date of demand such further information in regard to the matters mentioned in sub-section (1) as that officer may in writing demand from him.

(3) Within such time as may be prescribed before the date of the sailing of any such ship from any port or place in British India, the master, owner or agent of the ship shall advertise at such port or place in such manner as may be prescribed—

- (a) the place of destination of the ship
 - (b) the proposed date of sailing from that port or place which shall be the date communicated to the Pilgrim Officer under sub-section (1) and
 - (c) the price of each class of passage tickets which shall not be in excess of the price communicated to the Pilgrim Officer under sub-section (1)
- (4) Any master, owner or agent who—
- (a) without reasonable cause the burden of proving which shall lie upon him fails or refuses to supply any particulars or information which he is by or under this section required to supply or supplies false particulars or information or
 - (b) advertises any ship for the conveyance of pilgrims or offers to convey pilgrims by any ship or sells or promises or permits any person to sell passage tickets to pilgrims for conveyance by any ship without having first supplied the particulars required by sub-section (1) and in accordance with the provisions of that sub-section or

(Part II — Native Passenger Ships and Pilgrim Ships)

- (c) advertises a date of sailing from any port or place other than the date communicated to the Pilgrim Officer at that port or place under sub section (1), or advertises a price for passage tickets at that port or place in excess of the price so communicated, or
- (d) offers to convey pilgrims by any ship from any port or place in British India or sells or promises or permits any person to sell passage tickets to pilgrims for conveyance by a ship from any such port or place without having made advertisement, as required by sub section (3), of the matters specified in that sub section, or
- (e) sells or permits any person to sell to any pilgrim any passage ticket at a price in excess of the price communicated to the Pilgrim Officer under sub section (1), shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees

209C (1) If the pilgrim ship fail to proceed from any port or place on the date advertised under sub section (3) of section 209B as the date of sailing therefrom the master, owner or agent shall become liable to pay as compensation to each pilgrim who has paid his passage money on or before such date the sum of one rupee for each completed day during which the sailing of the ship is delayed after that date

Provided that such compensation shall not be payable in respect of any period during which the departure of the ship is impossible owing to any cause not arising from the act or default of the master, owner or agent and the burden of proving such cause shall lie on such master, owner or agent

Provided, further, that where compensation has been paid or has become payable to any pilgrim in respect of delay in the sailing of the ship from any port or place and the sailing of the ship from any other port or place is thereafter delayed beyond the date advertised in that behalf, the pilgrim shall be entitled to compensation only in respect of any period by which the duration of such further delay exceeds the duration of the delay in respect of which he has already received or become entitled to compensation

(2) In the event of such failure, the master owner or agent shall be bound forthwith to inform the Pilgrim Officer at the port or place at which the delay occurs of the number of passage tickets of each class which have been issued for the voyage on or before the advertised date of sailing

(3) Any sum payable as compensation under sub section (1) shall be paid on behalf of the pilgrims entitled thereto to the Pilgrim Officer at the port or place at which the delay occurs on receipt by the master, owner or agent of a notice from that officer specifying the sum payable, and that officer shall in such manner as may be prescribed, pay to each such pilgrim the compensation paid in respect of his detention

Provided that, if an objection is made by the master, owner or agent that the sum specified in any such notice or any part of such sum is not payable by him the sum paid or as the case may be, the balance thereof remaining after payment to the pilgrims entitled thereto of compensation the right to which is not in dispute shall be held in deposit until the objection has been decided

Provided, further, that, if for any reason the compensation due to any pilgrim cannot be paid to him at the time of embarkation or at or before the time of his disembarkation at the port of his destination, the sum so remaining unpaid shall be made over to such authority administering any fund maintained for the assistance of pilgrims as the ~~Local~~ ^{Local} Government may, by general or special order, designate in this behalf

(4) If the master, owner or agent objects that the sum specified in the notice issued under sub section (3) or any part thereof is not payable by him, he may, at the time of payment of such sum, give to the Pilgrim Officer notice of his objection together with a statement of the grounds thereof, and the Pilgrim Officer shall thereupon either cancel or modify the aforesaid notice in accordance with the objection and refund the sum held in deposit under sub section (3) or refer the objection for decision to a Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of the first class exercising jurisdiction in the port or place at which the ship is delayed, the decision of the Magistrate on such reference shall be final, and there shall be refunded to the master, owner or agent any amount allowed to him by such decision

(5) On the failure of any pilgrim ship to proceed from any port or place on the date advertised under sub section (3) of section 209B as the date of sailing therefrom, the Pilgrim Officer at that port or place shall forthwith give notice of such failure to the officer authorised to grant port clearance to ships thereat and such officer shall refuse port clearance to the pilgrim ship until the master owner or agent produces to him a certificate of the Pilgrim Officer that all sums payable by way of compensation under this section up to the day on which the ship is to proceed have been paid

of ships

209D Notwithstanding anything contained in section 209B or section 209C where any ship which has been advertised under sub section (3) of section 209B for the conveyance of pilgrims has been or is likely to be delayed beyond the advertised date of sailing the owner or agent may, with the permission in writing of the Pilgrim Officer, substitute for it any other ship which is of the same class and is capable of carrying not less than the same number of pilgrims of each class, and on such permission being given the advertisement shall be deemed to have been made in respect of the ship so substituted and all the provisions of those sections shall apply accordingly in respect of such ship]

Council*} may direct that a breach of it shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, and, when the breach is a continuing breach, with a further fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day after the first during which the breach continues

3. The power to make rules under this section is subject to the condition of the rules being made after previous publication

Prevention of Collisions

214. (1) The ~~Local Government~~ ^{F.S. Council} may appoint persons to inspect, ^{Appoint-} in any port, ships to which the regulations for preventing collisions at ^{ment of} sea, issued under the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Acts, or ^{inspectors of} any other similar law for the time being in force, may apply, for the ^{lights and} purpose of seeing that such ships are properly provided with lights and ^{fog signals.} with the means of making fog-signals, in pursuance of such regulations or law.

(2) Every person so appointed shall in the port for which he is appointed have, for the purposes of such inspection, the following powers—

(a) he may go on board any ship and may inspect the same or any part thereof, or any of the machinery, equipments and cargo on board thereof, and may require the unloading or removal of any cargo, ballast or tackle, not unnecessarily detaining or delaying her from discharging, unloading or proceeding on any voyage.

(Part V—Safety.)

- (b) he may, by summons under his hand, require the attendance of all such persons as he thinks fit to call before him, may examine such persons, and may, by a like summons, require returns in writing to any inquiries he thinks fit to make;
- (c) he may require and enforce the production of all books, papers or documents which he considers important; and
- (d) he may administer oaths, or may, in lieu of administering an oath, require every person examined by him to make and subscribe a declaration of the truth of the statements made by him in his examination

Notice of deficiency to be given to master or owner by such inspectors

215. If any person so appointed finds that any ship is not so provided, he shall give to the master or owner notice in writing pointing out the deficiency, and also what is, in his opinion, requisite in order to remedy the same

Ship not to be cleared by Customs-collector till inspector certifies it is properly provided with lights, etc

216. Every notice so given shall be communicated in such manner as the ^{S. 4 in Council} Local Government may direct to the Customs-collector at any port from which such ship may seek to clear, and no Customs-collector to whom such communication is made shall grant such ship a port-clearance or allow her to proceed to sea without a certificate under the hand of some person appointed as aforesaid, to the effect that the said ship is properly provided with lights and with the means of making fog-signals in pursuance of the said regulations or law

Marking of deck lines

217. (1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, every ship, British or foreign, while in any port in British India shall be permanently and conspicuously marked outside with lines of not less than twelve inches in length and one inch in breadth painted longitudinally on each side amidships, or as near thereto as practicable, and indicating the position of each deck which is above water

(2) The upper edge of each of these lines shall be level with the upper side of the deck-plank next the waterway at the place of marking.

(3) The lines shall be white or yellow on a dark ground, or black on a light ground

(4) In this Part the expression "amidships" means the middle of the length of the loadwater-line as measured from the fore side of the stem to the aft side of the stern post

(Part V—Safety)

218 (1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the master of every ship, British or foreign, while in any port in British India shall, before the time hereinafter mentioned, mark outside upon each of her sides and ships, or as near thereto as practicable, in white or yellow on a dark ground, or in black on a light ground, a circular disc twelve inches in diameter with a horizontal line eighteen inches in length drawn through its centre

load lines

(2) The centre of the disc shall be placed at such level below the deck line marked, under the provisions of this Part or of the Merchant Shipping Acts, as may be approved by the Local Government, and shall indicate the maximum load line in perfectly smooth salt-water to which it shall be lawful to load the ship

(3) The position of the disc shall be fixed in accordance with the tables used from time to time by the Board of Trade subject to such allowance as may be necessary in consequence of any difference between the position of the deck line marked under the provisions of this Part or of the Merchant Shipping Acts and the position of the line from which free board is measured under the said tables, and subject also to such modifications, if any, of the tables and the application thereof, as may from time to time, ~~with the previous approval of the Governor General in Council~~, be sanctioned by the Local Government

(4) Any load line marked under the Merchant Shipping Acts or under any enactment of any British Possession regarding which an Order in Council under section 444 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, exists, and any certificate given in pursuance of these Acts or any such enactment in respect of such marking, shall have the same effect as if it had been marked or given in pursuance of this Part

219 If any ship, British or foreign, while in any port in British India, is so loaded as to submerge in perfectly smooth salt water the centre of the disc indicating the load line, the ship shall be deemed to be an unsafe ship within the meaning of the provisions hereinafter contained in this Part

load lines deemed unsafe

220 (1) When any British or foreign going ship proceeds on any voyage from a port in British India for which the owner is required to enter the ship outwards the disc indicating the load line shall be marked before so entering her, or, if that is not practicable, as soon afterwards as may be

marking load line in case of foreign going vessels.

(Part V—Safety)

(2) Every person applying for entry of any such ship outwards shall insert, in the form of application made to the Customs-collector, a statement in writing of the distance in feet and inches between the centre of such disc and the upper edge of each of the lines indicating the position of the ship's decks which is above such centre, and, if default be made in delivering this statement, the Customs collector may refuse to enter the ship outwards.

(3) The master of every British or foreign going ship shall enter a copy of this statement in the agreement with the crew before it is signed by any member of the crew and no shipping master shall proceed with the engagement of a crew for any such ship until this entry has been made.

(4) The master of every British or foreign going ship shall enter a copy of this statement in the official log book (if any).

(5) When a ship has been marked as by this section required, she shall be kept so marked until she next returns to a port of discharge in British India or arrives at a port in the United Kingdom.

Time for marking load line in case of coast-
ing vessels

221 (1) When a ship which is a coasting vessel within the meaning of the Sea Customs Act, 1878 is required to be marked with the disc indicating the load line, she shall be so marked before the ship proceeds to sea from any port.

(2) The master shall also once in every twelve months, immediately before the ship proceeds to sea send or deliver to the Customs collector, or other principal officer of Customs of such port as the ^{Local Government} ~~Local Government~~ may appoint in this behalf a statement in writing of the distance in feet and inches between the centre of the disc and the upper edge of each of the lines indicating the position of the ship's decks which is above that centre.

(3) The master before the ship proceeds to sea after any renewal or alteration of the disc shall send or deliver to the Customs collector or other principal officer of Customs aforesaid notice in writing of such renewal or alteration, together with such statement in writing as before mentioned of the distance between the centre of the disc and the upper edge of each of the deck lines.

(4) If default be made in sending or delivering any notice or statement required by this section to be sent or delivered, the master shall be liable to a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

(5) When a ship has been marked as required by this section she shall be kept so marked until notice has been given of an alteration.

(Part V—Safety)

222 (1) If—

- (a) any master of a ship neglects to cause his ship to be marked as by this Part required or to keep her so marked, or allows his ship to be so loaded that when in perfectly smooth salt water the centre of the disc is submerged, or

Penalty for offences relating to marking of load line.

- (b) any person conceals, removes, alters, defaces or obliterates, or suffers any person under his control to conceal, remove, alter, deface or obliterate, any of the lines or marks prescribed by or under this Part, except in the event of the particulars thereby denoted being lawfully altered, or for the purpose of escaping capture by an enemy, he shall be liable in respect of each such offence to a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees

(2) The master of any ship on which any of the marks or lines prescribed by or under this Part is inaccurately placed so as to be likely to mislead, who does not forthwith cause such inaccuracy to be corrected, shall be liable to a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees

223 The ~~Local Government~~ ^{S. F. in Council} shall appoint—

Power to appoint officer to certify position of disc

- (a) a surveyor employed by Lloyd's or by any other society, corporation or association for the survey or registry of shipping approved by the Board of Trade under section 443 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and specially authorised in this behalf by Lloyd's or by such society, corporation or association, as the case may be or

- (b) an officer specially selected by the ~~Local Government~~ ^{S. F. in Council} for the purpose, to approve and certify on ^{his} behalf from time to time the position of any disc indicating the load line and any alteration thereof, and may, ~~with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council,~~ fix the fees to be taken in respect of any such approval or certificate

224 (1) The ~~Local Government~~ ^{S. F. in Council} ~~with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council~~ may make rules—

Power to make rules.

- (a) determining the lines or marks to be used in connection with any such disc as aforesaid in order to indicate the maximum load line under different circumstances and at different seasons and declaring that the provisions of this Part

are to have effect as if any such line were drawn through the centre of the disc,

(b) as to the mode in which the disc and the lines or marks to be used in connection therewith are to be marked or affixed on the ship, whether by painting, cutting or otherwise,

(c) as to the mode of application for, and form of, certificates under this Chapter, and

(d) as to the entry of such certificates, and any other prescribed particulars concerning the draught of water and free board of the ship, in the official log (if any) of the ship, or other publication thereof on board the ship, and as to delivering copies of such entries

(2) Rules under clause (a) of sub section (1) may, with respect to any class or classes of ships,—

(i) declare what shall be deemed to be seasons of fair weather and seasons of foul weather, respectively, for any of the purposes of the rules, and

(ii) modify the tables referred to in sub section (3) of section 216

Grain Cargoes

Stowage of cargo of grain, etc

225 No cargo of which more than one third consists of any kind of grain, corn, rice paddy, pulse, seeds, nuts or nutkernels (hereinafter referred to as grain cargo) shall be carried on board any British or foreign ship unless the same be contained in bags, sacks or barrels, or secured from shifting by boards or bulkheads or otherwise

Penalty for improper

226 If the owner or master of any ship, or any agent of such owner who is charged with the loading of such ship or the sending her to sea, knowingly allows any grain cargo or part of a grain cargo to be shipped therein for carriage contrary to the provisions of the last foregoing section, he shall be liable to a fine which may extend to three thousand rupees

227. Nothing in the provisions of this Part relating to the overloading and improper loading of ships or to the marking of deck and load-lines shall apply to—

(i) any sailing ship of less than one hundred and fifty tons employed in plying coastwise between ports situated in India and Ceylon,

(Part V—Safety)

(ii) any ship of less than one hundred and fifty tons solely employed in fishing,

(iii) any pleasure yacht,

(iv) any foreign ship not bound to a port in British India for any purpose other than the purpose of embarking or landing passengers or taking in or discharging cargo or taking in bunker coal,

(v) any foreign ship which, if in a port of the United Kingdom, would be entitled to the benefit of a direction of His Majesty in Council under section 445 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 which comes in Category Part in Br. I.

223 (1) The ~~Government~~ ^{G. Gov. in Council} with the previous sanction of the ~~Governor General in Council~~ ^{G. Gov. in Council} may, by notification in the local official Gazette exclude from or bring again within the operation of, all or any of the provisions of this Part relating to the overloading and improper loading of ships or to the marking of deck and load-lines subject to such modifications thereof (if any) as may be specified in the notification, any native craft not square rigged

Power to exclude or re-include certain classes of ships

(2) The Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India exclude from, or bring again within the operation of, the provisions of this Part relating to the marking of deck and load-lines any steam ships of less than one hundred and fifty tons which are employed in plying coastwise between ports situated in India and Ceylon and do not carry cargo

Unseaworthy Ships

229 (1) Every person who sends or attempts to send a British ship to sea from any port in British India in such an unseaworthy state that the life of any person is likely to be thereby endangered shall, unless he proves that he used all reasonable means to insure her being sent to sea in a seaworthy state or that her going to sea in such unseaworthy state was under the circumstances reasonable and justifiable, be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or to a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or to both

Every person sending unseaworthy ship to sea liable to penalty

(2) Every master of a British ship who knowingly takes such ship to sea in such unseaworthy state that the life of any person is likely to be

thereby endangered shall, unless he proves that her going to sea in such unseaworthy state was, under the circumstances, reasonable and justifiable, be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or to a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or to both

(3) For the purpose of giving such proof, every person charged under this section may give evidence in the same manner as any other witness

(4) No prosecution under this section shall be instituted except by, or with the consent of, the ^{Local Government} ~~Local Government~~

Unseaworthy ships

230 A ship is unseaworthy within the meaning of this Part when the materials of which she is made, her construction, the qualifications of the master, the number and description of the crew, the weight, description and stowage of the cargo, the tackle, sails, rigging, stores, ballast, and other equipment are not such as to render her in every respect fit for the proposed voyage or service

Obligation of owner to crew with respect to seaworthiness

231 (1) In every contract of service, express or implied, between the owner of a British ship and the master or any seaman thereof, and in every instrument of apprenticeship whereby any person is bound to serve as an apprentice on board any such ship, there shall be implied, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, an obligation on the owner that such owner and the master, and every agent charged with the loading of such ship or the preparing thereof for sea, or the sending thereof to sea, shall use all reasonable means to secure the seaworthiness of such ship for the voyage at the time when such voyage commences, and to keep her in a seaworthy state for the voyage during the same

(2) Nothing in this section shall subject such owner to any liability by reason of such ship being sent to sea in an unseaworthy state where, owing to special circumstances, the so sending her to sea is reasonable and justifiable

Detention of unsafe ships by the Local Government

Power to detain unsafe ship and procedure for detention

232 (1) Where a British ship in any port to which the ^{Local Gov} ~~Local Gov~~ ^{Council} ~~Council~~ may specially extend this section is an unsafe ship, that is to say, is by reason of the defective condition of her hull equipments or machinery, or by reason of overloading or improper loading, unfit to proceed to sea without serious danger to human life, having regard to the nature of the service for which she is intended such ship may be provisionally detained for the purpose of being surveyed and either finally detained or released as follows, namely—

- (a) The ^{P. & C. Council} Local Government, if ^{he} it has reason to believe, on complaint or otherwise, that any such ship is unsafe, may order the ship to be provisionally detained as an unsafe ship for the purpose of being surveyed
- (b) A written statement of the grounds of such detention shall be forthwith served on the master of such ship
- (c) When the ^{P. & C. Council} Local Government provisionally orders the detention of a ship, ^{he} it shall either refer the matter to the Court of Survey for the port where the ship is detained, or forthwith appoint some competent person to survey such ship and report thereon, and, on receiving ^{the} report, may either order the ship to be released or, if in ^{his} its opinion the ship is unsafe, may order her to be finally detained, either absolutely or until the performance of such conditions with respect to the execution of repairs or alterations, or the unloading or reloading of cargo, as the ^{P. & C. Council} Local Government thinks necessary for the protection of human life
- (d) Before an order for final detention is made, a copy of the report shall be served upon the master of the ship, and within seven days after such service the owner or master may appeal against such report, in the manner prescribed, to the Court of Survey for the port where the ship is detained
- (e) Where a ship has been provisionally detained and a person has been appointed under this section to survey such ship, the owner or master of the ship, at any time before such person makes that survey, may require that he shall take with him as assessor such person as the owner or master may select, being a person named in the list of assessors for the Court of Survey or, if there is no such list, or if it is impracticable to procure the attendance of any person named in such list, a person of nautical, engineering or other special skill and experience. If the surveyor and assessor agree that the ship should be detained or released, the ^{P. & C. Council} Local Government shall cause the ship to be detained or released accordingly, and the owner or master shall have no appeal If the surveyor and assessor differ in their report, the Local Government may act as if the requisition had not been made, and the owner or master shall have such appeal touching the report of the surveyor as is heretofore provided in this section

(f) Where a ship has been provisionally detained, the ^{89 in} ~~Local~~ ^{Council} ~~Government~~ may at any time if ~~it~~ ^{he} thinks it expedient, refer the matter to the Court of Survey for the port where the ship is detained

(g) The ^{89 in Council} ~~Local Government~~ may at any time, if satisfied that a ship detained under this section is not unsafe, order her to be released either upon or without any conditions

(2) Any person appointed by the ^{89 in Council} ~~Local Government~~ for the purpose (in this Act referred to as a detaining officer) shall have the same power as the ^{89 in Council} ~~Local Government~~ has under this section of provisionally ordering the detention of a ship for the purpose of being surveyed, and of appointing a person to survey her and if he thinks that a ship so detained by him is not unsafe, may order her to be released

(3) A detaining officer shall forthwith report to the ^{89 in Council} ~~Local Government~~ any order made by him for the detention or release of a ship

(4) A ship detained under this section shall not be released by reason of her British or British Indian register being subsequently closed

(5) A detaining officer shall have, for the purpose of his duties under this Part the following powers namely —

(a) he may go on board any British ship and may inspect the same or any part thereof, or any of the machinery, equipments and cargo on board thereof, and may require the unloading or removal of any cargo ballast or tackle not unnecessarily detaining or delaying her from discharging, unloading or proceeding on any voyage

(b) he may, by summons under his hand require the attendance of all such persons as he thinks fit to call before him, may examine such persons, and may by a like summons, require returns in writing to any inquiries he thinks fit to make

(c) he may require and enforce the production of all books, papers or documents which he considers important, and

(Part V —Safety)

- (d) he may administer oaths, or may, in lieu of administering an oath, require every person examined by him to make and subscribe a declaration of the truth of the statements made by him in his examination

Costs of detention and damages incidental thereto

233 If it appears that there was not reasonable and probable cause, by reason of the condition of the ship or the act or default of the owner, for the provisional detention of a ship, the Government shall be liable to pay to the owner of the ship his costs of and incidental to the detention and survey of the ship, and also compensation for any loss or damage sustained by him by reason of the detention or survey.

Liability of Government for costs and damages when ship wrongly detained 234 If a ship is finally detained under this Part, or if it appears that a ship provisionally detained was at the time of such detention unsafe the owner of the ship shall be liable to pay to Government its costs of and incidental to the detention and survey of the ship and such costs shall, without prejudice to any other remedy, be recoverable as salvage is recoverable

Liability of shipowner for costs when ship rightly detained

235 For the purposes of this Act, the costs of and incidental to any proceeding before a Court of Survey, and a reasonable amount in respect of the remuneration of the surveyor or any person appointed to represent the ~~owner~~ the S. G. Council before the Court shall be deemed to be part of the costs of the detention and survey of the ship

236 When a complaint is made to the ~~Government~~ S. G. Council or a detaining-officer that a British ship is unsafe it shall be in the discretion of ~~such Government or officer~~ S. G. Council or the detaining officer (in the case may be) to require the complainant to give security to the satisfaction of ~~such Government or officer~~ S. G. Council or the detaining officer for the costs and compensation which such complainant may become liable to pay as hereinafter mentioned

Power to require from complainant security for costs etc

Provided that where the complaint is made by one fourth, being not less than three of the seamen belonging to the ship and is not in the opinion of such Government or officer frivolous or vexatious such security shall not be required and such Government or officer shall if the complaint is made in sufficient time before the sailing of the ship take proper steps to ascertain whether the ship ought to be detained under this Part

237 Where a ship is detained in consequence of any complaint and the circumstances are such that the Government is liable under this Part to pay to the owner of the ship any costs of compensation, the complainant shall be liable to pay to the Government all such costs and compensation as the Government incurs, or is liable to pay, in respect of the detention and survey of the ship.

Application to foreign ships of provisions as to detention.

238. When a foreign ship is in a port in British India and is, whilst at that port, unsafe by reason of overloading or improper loading, the provisions of this Part with respect to the detention of ships shall apply to that foreign ship as if she were a British ship with the following modifications, namely:—

- (i) a copy of the order for the provisional detention of the ship shall forthwith be served on the consular officer for the country to which the ship belongs at or nearest to the port in which such ship is detained;
- (ii) the consular officer, at the request of the owner or master of the ship, may require that the person appointed by the ~~Local Government~~ ^{4.9. in Council} to survey the ship shall be accompanied by such person as the consular officer may select, and in that case, if the surveyor and that person agree, the ~~Local Government~~ ^{4.9. in Council} shall cause the ship to be detained or released accordingly; but, if they differ, the ~~Local Government~~ ^{4.9. in Council} may act as if the requisition had not been made, and the owner and master shall have the like appeal to a Court of Survey touching the report of the surveyor as is hereinbefore provided in the case of a British ship; and
- (iii) where the owner or master of the ship appeals to the Court of Survey, the consular officer, at his request, may appoint a competent person to be assessor in the case in lieu of the assessor who, if the ship were a British ship, would be appointed otherwise than by the ~~Local Government~~ ^{4.9. in Council}.

Delegation of powers to Port Commissioners, etc.

239. (1) The ~~Local Government~~ ^{4.9. in Council} may, from time to time, by notification in the ~~Local Official Gazette~~ ^{4.9. in Council}, delegate, either absolutely or subject to such conditions or restrictions as it thinks fit, to any body of Commissioners or trustees appointed for managing the affairs of a port, all or any of the powers, and require the said body to discharge all or any of the functions of ~~the Local Government~~ ^{4.9. in Council} under the foregoing sections of this Part, except the power of making rules.

(2) While any such notification remains in force, all costs and damages which would otherwise be recoverable under this Part by or from the Government shall be recoverable in like manner by or from such body, and such body shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any enactment for the time being in force, credit or pay as the case may be the amount of any cost or damages so recovered to or from the funds held by them in trust as such body

Installation of Wireless Telegraphy

240 The provisions of this Part in regard to the installation of wireless telegraphy on ships registered in British India shall come into force on such date as the Governor General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India direct

Commencement

241 In the provisions of this Part relating to the installation of wireless telegraphy, passenger steamer means a steam ship which carries more than twelve passengers

Definition

242 (1) Every sea going British ship registered in British India being a passenger steamer or a ship of sixteen hundred tons gross tonnage or upwards shall be provided with a wireless telegraph installation of the prescribed description and shall maintain a wireless telegraph service of the prescribed nature and shall be provided with such certificated operators and watchers as may be prescribed

Wireless telegraphy requirements

Provided that the Governor General in Council may by notification² in the Gazette of India exempt from the obligations imposed by this section any ships or classes of ships if he is of opinion that having regard to the nature of the voyages on which the ships are engaged or other circumstances of the case the provision of a wireless telegraph installation is unnecessary or unreasonable

(2) If this section is not complied with in the case of any such ship, the master or owner of the ship shall be liable in respect of each offence to a fine which may extend to one thousand rupees

243 (1) The Governor General in Council may appoint officers (hereinafter referred to in this Act as wireless telegraphy inspectors) for the purpose of seeing that the requirements of this Part relating to wireless telegraphy are complied with on board any ship

Appointment and powers of wireless telegraphy inspectors

(2) A wireless telegraphy inspector may inspect any ship for the purpose of seeing that she is properly provided with a wireless telegraph installation and certificated operators and watchers in conformity with

¹ Sections 241 to 245 were brought into force from 5th May 1923 vide Notification No. 2743 dated the 5th May 1923 Gen. R. and O. Vol. V, p. 446

this Part, and for this purpose may go on board any ship at all reasonable times and do all things necessary for the proper inspection of the ship for the purpose of the provisions of this Part relating to wireless telegraphy, and may also require the master of the ship to supply him with any information which it is in the power of the master to supply for that purpose, including the production of any certificate granted under this Part in respect of the installation, and of the certificates of the operators and watchers on the ship

(3) If a wireless telegraphy inspector finds that a ship is not provided, he shall give to the master or owner notice in writing pointing out the deficiency, and also pointing out what in his opinion is requisite to remedy the same

(4) Every notice given under sub section (3) shall be communicated, in the prescribed manner, to the Chief Officer of Customs of any port at which the ship may seek to obtain port clearance, who shall order that the ship shall be detained until a certificate under the hand of a wireless telegraphy inspector is produced to the effect that the ship is properly provided with a wireless telegraph installation and certified operators and watchers in conformity with this Part

1244 The provisions of this Part relating to wireless telegraphy shall, as from a date three months after the coming into force of those provisions, apply to ships other than British ships registered in British India while they are within any port in British India in like manner as they apply to British ships registered in British India

1245 (1) The Governor General in Council may make rules to carry out the purposes of the provisions of this Part relating to wireless telegraphy

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may prescribe—

(a) the nature of the wireless telegraph installation to be provided and of the service to be maintained, and the number, grades and qualifications of certified operators and watchers to be carried

Provided that no ship shall be required to carry more than one operator, unless more than one operator would have been required under the provisions of the Merchant Shipping 4 & V c

250 (1) Any Court making a formal investigation into a shipping casualty may inquire into any charge of incompetency or misconduct arising, in the course of the investigation, against any master, mate or engineer, as well as into any charge of a wrongful act or default on his part causing the shipping casualty.

Power for Court of Inquiry to inquire into charges against masters, mates and engineers.

(2) In every case in which any such charge, whether of incompetency or misconduct, or of a wrongful act or default, as aforesaid, arises against any master, mate or engineer in the course of an investigation, the Court shall, before the commencement of the inquiry, cause to be furnished to him a copy of the report or statement of the case upon which the investigation has been directed.

251 (1) If the ^{F. F. in Council} Local Government has reason to believe that there are grounds for charging any master, mate or engineer with incompetency or misconduct otherwise than in the course of a formal investigation into a shipping casualty the ^{F. F. in Council} Local Government—

Power for Local Government to direct investigation into charges of incompetency or misconduct.

(a) if the master, mate or engineer holds a certificate under this Act, in any case,

(b) if the master, mate or engineer holds a certificate under the Merchant Shipping Acts, in the following cases —

(i) where the incompetency or misconduct has occurred on a British ship on or near the coasts of British India, or on board a British ship in the course of a voyage to a port within the colony,

(Part VI—Special Shipping Inquiries and Courts)

- (ii) where the incompetency or misconduct has occurred on board a British ship registered in British India,
- (iii) where the master, mate or engineer of a British ship, who is charged with incompetency or misconduct on board that British ship is found in British India, may transmit a statement of the case to any Court mentioned in section 249 at or nearest to the place at which it may be convenient for the parties and witnesses to attend, and may direct that Court to make an investigation into that charge

(See section 279)

Declaration between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Government of the French Republic with reference to the disposal of the proceeds of Wrecks on their respective Coasts

The Government of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and the Government of the French Republic, desiring to regulate by a new Agreement questions relative to the disposal of the proceeds of wrecks on the coasts of the two States have agreed to replace the Declaration signed at London on the 16th June, 1879, by the following arrangements —

ARTICLE I

When any ship belonging to the subjects of one of the two Contracting States is wrecked or stranded on the coast of the other the competent local authorities shall with as little delay as possible, bring the fact to the knowledge of the Consul General, Consul Vice Consul or Consular Agent nearest to the spot where the wreck or stranding has taken place

ARTICLE II

All operations relative to the salvage of British ships which may be wrecked or stranded on the coasts of France shall be directed by the Consuls General, Consuls Vice Consuls or Consular Agents of Great Britain, and reciprocally the French Consuls General, Consuls Vice-Consuls and Consular Agents shall direct all operations relative to the salvage of ships of their nation wrecked or stranded on the coasts of Great Britain

ARTICLE III

If the owners of the ship and cargo, or their duly authorised representatives, shall be present and shall claim it, the Consuls General, Consuls, Vice Consuls and Consular Agents shall hand over to them the conduct of the salvage operations after requiring the deposit of the ship's papers, as well as the reimbursement of the expenses already defrayed, and, a sufficient guarantee for those incurred before the operations were handed over, and which may not have been already settled

ARTICLE IV

The intervention of the local authorities shall only take place in the two countries for the purpose of assisting the Consular authority, of maintaining order, of securing the interests of the salvors if they are strangers to the ship-wrecked crews, and of assuring the due execution of the arrangements to be carried out for the entry and departure of the merchandise saved

In the absence, and until the arrival, of the Consuls General, Consuls, Vice Consuls or Consular Agents, the local authorities shall, moreover, take all necessary measures for the protection of the persons and for the preservation of the articles which shall have been saved from the wreck

This intervention shall not give rise to any charges, with the exception of those which the salvage operations and the protection of the articles saved shall have rendered necessary, and those to which national ships would, under similar circumstances, be liable. These charges shall be paid according to the circumstances of the case, either by the Agents of the Consular service, or by their owners or their proxies

In case absence, sickness or any other cause should prevent the Agents of the Consular service from seeing to the operations and the management of the salvage, the local authorities who may be charged with the operations and management in question shall be bound to remit to the aforesaid Agents the ship's papers and the net proceeds of the ship and the cargo

The merchandise and articles saved shall not be liable to any customs-duties, unless they are intended for home consumption, in which case they shall pay the same duties as they would have had to pay if they had been imported in national vessels

The stipulations of the present Declaration shall be applicable to all the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, excepting those hereinafter named, that is to say, except to—

India	Victoria
The Dominion of Canada	Queensland
Newfoundland	Tasmania
The Cape	South Australia
Natal.	Western Australia
New South Wales	New Zealand

Provided always that the stipulations of the present Declaration shall be made applicable to any of the abovenamed Colonies or foreign possessions on whose behalf notice to that effect shall have been given by Her Britannic Majesty's Representative to the French Republic within one year from the date of the signature of the present Declaration

The stipulations of the present Declaration shall be applicable to all the Colonies and foreign possessions of France

ARTICLE VII

The present Declaration shall come into operation three months after the date of its signature, and shall remain in force until the expiration of one year from the day on which either Party may give notice of its intention to terminate it

In witness whereof, the undersigned Plenipotentiaries, His Excellency the Earl of Lytton, Ambassador of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and His Excellency M Eugène Spuller, Minister for Foreign Affairs, have signed the present Declaration, and have affixed thereto their seals
